Sausalito Council Blasts Marincello

By ALAN CUNNINGHAM

As the audience applauded, Sausalito city councilmen early today passed a strongly worded resolution urging the county to block development of the proposed city of Marincello.

Unanimous vote on the resolution, drafted by Councilman Melvin S. Wax, came at 12:05 a.m.

The resolution says Sausalito "views with alarm the impact such a development would have on Sausalito's community values." It quotes from a New York Times editorial and President Lyndon B. Johnson's State of the Union message to back its contention that the Marin headlands should be preserved as a scenic and recreational area.

It asks that the county planning commission reject the bid of Marincello's developer, the Thomas Frouge Corp., for review of its plans.

Also, it urges the county, state and federal governments "to join in taking whatever steps are necessary to preserve this priceless heritage of the Golden Gate Headlands for the benefit not solly of land speculators, but more importantly for all the people of the nation."

Copies are to be sent to President Johnson, Gov. Edmund G. Brown, Secy. of Interior Stewart Udall and members of the state beaches and parks commission, as well as to Marin supervisors and planning commissioners.

Only arguments against the resolution came from public relations man Jules Becker and former county supervisor Vera Schultz, both of whom represent Frouge Corp.

Saying she had not been asked by the firm to appear, but came on her own after learning of the proposed resolution, Mrs. Schultz made a strong plea that the council not "shut the door" on Marincello without exploring all the facts of its promise to bring tax relief to the county.

"As a former supervisor," she said, "I am very much concerned with the problem of the county's high tax rate."

Claiming Marin has the second highest tax rate of California's 58 counties, Mrs. Schultz contended that more than a quarter of its land is dedicated to public use, thus is off the tax rolls.

She said high-rise apartment and hotel buildings were planned for Marincello in hope of providing tax relief, since "single family residences do not pay the way."

Spectators applauded for the

SEA LION SPLIT

Sausalito's sea lion is falling to pieces.

So says sculptor Mary Tilden Strebeigh of 164 Santa Rosa Avenue. Mrs. Strebeigh suggests that the lion be rebuilt by its original sculptor Al Sebrian, formerly of Sausalito and now of Muir Beach. She recommends it be placed in the Marin Art and Garden Fair before being returned to its watery perch in the bay near Tiffany Park on Bridgeway.

The Sausalito Planning Commission will hear the request for reconstruction at its 8 p.m. meeting today.

Commissioners will also hear a presentation of the East Mill Valley general plan by Harvey E. Bragdon, Mill Valley planning director.

South Viet Fliers Report Red Planes

New American Laos Air Strike Hinted

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON—South Viet Nam reported today that Communist planes tried for the first time to intercept Vietnamese planes during the massive strikes against North Viet Nam yesterday. A spokesman said they apparently were frightened off.

U.S. B57 jet bombers flew four strikes against Communist troops in the Mekong Delta today but no major air activity was announced. There was no confirmation of reports 30 B57s might have bombed Communist military targets in Laos today.

A formal announcement was similarly withheld when U.S. jets from Da Nang attacked a bridge in Laos in mid-January in an effort to cut Communist supply lines from North Viet Nam. There were reports the jets took off loaded with bombs and rockets and returned empty.

American fliers said they saw no enemy planes yesterday but conceded they were flying at different altitudes and might have missed them. Hanoi is known to have 25 Soviet-built MIGs but has kept them grounded in the face of the attacks by an overwhelming 160 U. S. and Vietnamese planes.

'ACTUAL DEEDS'

There still was no indication whether Red China would join the air war. Peking Radio said further attacks may force Peking to "actual deeds" of support but it made no direct threat. Hanoi warned today new attacks will meet "telling counter-blows."

In Moscow a group of 19 Communist nations holding a "unity conference" condemned the attacks and demanded withdrawal of U.S. forces from South Viet Nam. But the group also made no specific recommendations for action to end the Indochina crisis.

The Soviet Red Cross has cabled an appeal to President Johnson to "display humaneness and wise statesmanship" and stop the war in Viet Nam, the Soviet news agency Tass said today.

SOVIET PROPOSAL

The emphasis in Paris shifted to negotiations. France announced it had formally accepted a Soviet proposal to work "in concert" with the Soviet Union and seek a new international conference to end the war in Viet Nam.

French sources said there must be no strings to such a meeting. Moscow has demanded the cessation of American air strikes as a pre-condition and has demanded the withdrawal of U.S. advisers from Viet Nam.

President Johnson said in Washington last night that six planes were shot down in yesterday's massive air raid against Red military targets in North Viet Nam and that five of the pilots had been rescued.

U.S. officials in Saigon said four Americans and one Vietnamese were rescued and one American pilot was still missing. A U.S. spokesman refused to say whether he was down in North Viet Nam.

Moscow radio said "one pilot bailed out in a jungle area and a search has been organized" by the North Vietnamese. The broadcast said the plane went

Unruh Slams Brown Over Fund Transfer

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh D-Los Angeles, today sharply criticized Gov. Brown for transferring state funds to finance a special state project by an aerospace firm.

The speaker, at his weekly news conference, said, "If the legislature does not have the right to say when and where state money will be spent, then lets do away with the legislature and have a one-man rule."

The executive branch recently approved the transfer of certain funds for use in a Brown-sponsored project aimed at getting the aerospace industry to help solve certain state problems such as traffic and air pollution.

Brown said the program would not only benefit the state, but provide work for aerospace personnel who otherwise might be laid off by defense contract cutbacks.

Unruh said he supported the Brown plan but was deeply concerned that the legislature had not been asked to approve the transfer of funds.

"There is a right way and a wrong way to do things," Unruh said, "and this was the wrong way."

Unruh Offered A Peace Pipe

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Tom Carvey, president of the California Democratic Council, offered today to make peace with an old foe, Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh.

"It is imperative that we mutually find means to stop the internal splintering which threatens to fragment our party and turn the state over to the Republicans," Carvey said in a letter to the speaker.

He invited him to address the volunteer party organization's convention in Sacramento, March 20.

SAUSALITO SUIT

Sculptor's Shack Too Tiki-Tacky

The City of Sausalito yesterday served official notice that it has lost patience with sculptor Barney West.

Late yesterday afternoon, City Atty. Leland H. Jordan filed suit in Marin Superior Court to abate the alleged nuisance of West's tiki-making operation on Mono Street near the Northwestern Pacific Railroad track.

Last night, to the dismay of West's attorney, the city council formally backed Jordan's action.

Jordan said the suit makes no specific mention of the noise problem resulting from West's chain saw about which residents have complained to the council for several months. Instead, it alleges violations of the city's zoning ordinances, building and electrical codes, and fire standards.

Councilmen had before them a copy of a letter from attorney A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr. and another from San Francisco architect Lun Chan, who said he was drawing plans for West's new storage shed and studio. Bjorklund said he hoped this would demonstrate "that Barney is proceeding in good faith."

Jordan contended, and the council agreed, that the city should now demand deeds instead of promises as evidence of good faith.

Bjorklund hotly complained. He verbally sparred on one occasion with Mayor Jan Paul Dyk as to who had the floor. Later, Dyk declared him out of order when he suggested that other violations in the city were being overlooked.

"We have a lot of independent souls in Sausalito," said Bjorklund. Dyk countered that "I can be independent too and walk against the red light, but I am

MARIN HAS HIGH CLASS ROOSTERS

"There's a peacock on my patio," Mrs. Marjorie Joy Welland of 44 Madera Way, Mall Valley, reported to police at 7:12 a.m. today.

"I awoke," she said, "and heard this noise, sort of a beep beep or burp burp, sounding like a child with a horn."

Mrs. Welland described the bird as a male with beautiful electric blue body.

Crash Injury Proves Fatal To Marinite

William J. Larson, San Rafael attorney, died at 8:32 a.m. today at Marin General Hospital of injuries suffered in a Highway 101 auto crash last Saturday.

Larson and his wife, Selma, both suffered head injuries when their car spun on the rain-slick roadway and crashed into a concrete pillar of the Lucky Road pedestrian overpass in Greenbrae at 1:30 a.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Larson was reported in fair condition today and was moved yesterday from the intensive care unit. She also has a broken shoulder.

Larson's death was the sixth traffic fatality in Marin County this year. There were eight traffic deaths at this time last year.

In addition to his wife, Larson is survived by two sons, Eric and Jed, 3 and one-half-year-old twins who are staying with family friends. The Larson home is at 144 Valley View Avenue.

Larson was a partner in the San Francisco law firm of Larson and Donohoe. Born in Minnesota, he served in the Marine Corps during World War II.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

'Brown Will Run'

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State Democratic Chairman Roger Kent of Kentfield predicted today that Gov. Edmund G. Brown will seek a third term as California's chief executive. Kent says he has pledged his "full support to this cause."

Aid For Victims Of Eagles Urged

The spirits of Marin's two fallen eagles winged their way into the State Capital yesterday, carrying proposed legislation that would ease the ire of farmers.

State Sen. Frank S. Peterson, D-Ukiah, introduced a bill in the Senate which would provide reimbursement for farmers and ranchers whose livestock is killed by eagles.

Peterson said his proposed law was prompted by the much-publicized Marin eagle case. Point Reyes Station rancher Leroy Martinelli, who killed a golden eagle and a bald eagle on his property in January after they had killed seven lambs, now faces a misdemeanor charge in U. S. District Court.

The eagles are protected by federal law and can be killed only if a rancher has a hard-to-get eagle-killing permit. A third eagle killed two more of Martinelli's lambs since January, but his request for a permit to shoot it was turned down.

Peterson said yesterday he has no argument with the federal laws protecting eagles, but owners of livestock should be protected too, against losses.

The bill would permit the Fish and Game Commission to authorize payments out of the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to compensate ranchers.

"Obtaining a permit (to kill eagles) is so complicated that shooting eagles is not possible under most circumstances," Peterson said. "If the public wants to protect and maintain eagles, the public should stand ready to pay for damage the eagles do to individual property owners."

Martinelli is due in district court in San Francisco tomorrow. His attorney, A. E. Bagshaw of San Rafael, will ask for a jury trial.

FAIRFAX PUPIL TWIN SESSION DAYS AT END

To the delight of parents, teachers and many youngsters, double sessions have ended in Fairfax schools.

Supt. Homer Sisk said the district's first and second grades went on the same schedule as all others Monday.

The change was made possible by installation of four portable classrooms, with two each at Manor and Deer Park schools.

Hilarita Housing Sale Is Planned

Hilarita Housing in Tiburon is to be offered for public sale for delivery in 1969, the Marin County Housing Authority agreed last night.

Commissioners directed Donald O. Stutsman, executive director, to develop plans and get appraisals to take such action by April 6.

Sale is necessary due to lack of cash available to the authority and its obligation to support current redevelopment agency expenditures in Marin City, Stutsman said. The authority may lease back from the buyer 120 apartments in the project.

State Traffic Deaths Hit 365

That was 15 per cent above the highway death toll for the first month of 1964, when 326 died.

The patrol noted that 71 died in New Year's weekend accidents and 40 were killed on New Year's Day itself — an all-time high for one day.

I-J CONTEST

Housewife Knows Her Local News

Violet C. Schafer of 346 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, has won $100 and proved that just about everything, including the number of local stories in the Independent-Journal, can be predicted by mathematical formula.

Mrs. Schafer, one of hundreds who entered the I-J's contest on guessing the number of Marin County stories appearing in the paper in February, hit the nail on the head with her guess.

She said there would be 2,608 local stories printed in February and that is exactly how many there were.

Her husband, Charles Louis Schafer, was not quite so lucky. He entered the contest with a guess of 2,652. This was good enough to bring him a $5 prize.

Mrs. Schafer, who holds a master's degree in journalism from the University of Minnesota, explained how she made her "guess."

She studied five issues of the paper, counting all local stories and breaking them down into 30 categories according to subject matter. Thus she added up all police stories for five issues, all city council stories, all county government stories, and so on.

Next she divided these totals

CAMP PENDLETON (AP)—Three Camp Pendleton Marines were hurt and two others escaped injury, the Marine Corps reported, when a 2½-ton truck rolled off a narrow road last night during joint Navy-Marine maneuvers.

BOTH WINNERS — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Louis Schafer of 346 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, sit amidst their research, after learning that they both scored in guessing the number of local stories in the Independent-Jurnal in February. Mrs. Schafer won the $100 first prize and Schafer won a $5 prize.

by five to get a daily average and then multiplied by 24, the number of issues to be printed in February. When this was done, she added all her categories together and came up with 2,608.

"Actually," she said, "there was a good deal of luck in it because I'm terrible with figures."

Mrs. Schafer has worked as an editor for Pan American Airlines and as assistant editor of Sunset magazine.

Her husband, a conference consultant, is in the unusual business of advising organizations how to run meetings. He writes regularly for trade journals on this topic.

The contest brought some wild guesses. One entrant said there would be only 25 local stories in the I-J in February. Another said there would be 411,000.

Mrs. Yvonne M. Wasson of 2 Womack Court, Novato, and Kathleen McCliment of 405 Johnson Street, Sausalito, both guessed 2,616, but Mrs. Wasson's entry was postmarked earlier so she took the $50 second prize and Miss McCliment took the $25 third prize.

Receiving $10 prizes for next-closest guesses were Mrs. Frank Reynolds and Ruth L. Smith of San Anselmo, Mrs. Richard Korb and Mrs. J. P. Beyer of San Rafael and Gloria Richardson of Kentfield.

Receiving $5 prizes were Edward S. Lewis and James Henthorne of Mill Valley, Mrs. Edna Geries of San Anselmo, William H. Strittmatter of Sausalito, and Schafer.

sure I would get a ticket for it."

Bjorklund complained that Jordan had filed the suit "at five minutes after five today, without the knowledge of the city."

The council's reply was its unanimous vote backing the abatement proceedings.

Before that, the tension was broken once by laughter as speaker's voices were drowned out by the noisy engine of a motor scooter starting up outside. This prompted someone to suggest that West had set up his saw nearby.

Councilman Earl R. Dunphy marched outside and told the scooter-driver to drive off. He did.

Fairfax Summer School Teachers Due Pay Hikes

The Fairfax School District Board last night granted its first pay hike in five years for summer school teachers, and looked over a proposed new teachers' salary schedule for the 1965-66 school year.

Summer school teachers and their principal will get a 10 per cent increase, bringing the teachers to $550 and the principal to $770.

High school and college students will continue to get $1.50 per hour as aides in the summer program.

Board members discussed the 1965-66 schedule at some length, but were unable to resolve a few questions.

As proposed by the teachers' salary committee, the scale would run from a minimum of $5,400 to an eventual ceiling of $10,000. Present range is from $5,250 to $9,250.

On top of this, the new schedule would reward teachers for having master's degrees and for reaching levels of 18, 22, 26 and 30 years experience. The master's honorarium would pay a teacher $600 in two equal payments. The career honorarium would provide a bonus of from $200 to $350.

The board also agreed to consider March 16 a proposal by San Francisco State College teacher Victor York of Fairfax to set up a camping program for sixth graders. York said his own students would act as counselors.

Board members passed two resolutions as part of their request for state funds to buy the Smith Ranch property for use as a new school site.

While the district has agreed to pay $289,000 to Farr Associates for the 20-acre site, Sisk said total cost, including related expenses of buying and preparing the site, will come to $316,300.

Present at the meeting was the Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission, with which the board agreed to work out a formal agreement for joint use of recreation facilities. Sisk and a commission representative were asked to draft one.

Sisk also was told draw up a schedule for use of district ball fields by the Fairfax-Sleepy Hollow Little League. The board said it would leave Sundays open and would give other groups consideration for use of the fields.

second of three times when Mayor Jan Paul Dyk replied that he considers Marin County one of the finest places in the country to live, "and if that comes at a somewhat higher price, so be it."

First applause came after Wax read the test of the resolution; the final applause followed the vote itself.

Commenting on the council's stated concern over the density of the proposed city, Becker cited a market study which predicted an increase of more than 100,000 persons in southern Marin within a few years.

He also contended that in 1962, 66 per cent of the building permits for dwellings issued in the county were for apartments. (The percentage has since decreased.)

Wax said the population projection "is a very persuasive argument for keeping this area open."

Dyk said there is strong feeling among many residents that apartment construction is being overdone.

Wax was unmoved by Mrs. Schultz reiteration of Frouge's promise to bring a more than $2.7 million net tax gain to the county yearly. He said it was based on unproved assumptions, and termed it "a misleading and wholly falacious argument."

Today, Thomas Frouge, chairman of the board of Frouge Corp., issued a statement from New York in which he called the resolution "a political attempt to prevent the county planning commission from doing its duty."

Frouge said it would be a "classic case of determining the facts before they considered" if the planning commission followed Sausalito's request.

He charged that the council was in effect trying to make "2,138 acres of private land" into part of a 40-square-mile park, (the proposed Marin Headlands State Park.)

The session was sponsored by the men's club and women's guild of St. Isabella's Parish.

At Saigon, the Armed Forces Council announced tonight it had elected Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu to serve as its top officer, in effect replacing its ousted chief, Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh.

Khanh, as military strong man of the nation, held two posts — chairman of the Armed Forces Council and commander in chief of the armed forces.

Thieu will hold only a fraction of this power.

In the announcement, the council said it had decided not to elect a new chairman but would have a governing committee headed by a secretary-general instead. Thieu was named secretary-general, but Maj. Gen. Tran Van Minh will remain acting commander of the armed forces.

Two Report Of Bridge Leaper

Two motorists reported seeing a man leave his car and climb over the railing of the center span of the Golden Gate Bridge about 2:50 a.m. today.

Yoshio Paco Furukawa, 41, of Santa Maria, was listed as a probable suicide by the California Highway Patrol, although the Coast Guard was unable to find a body in the dark water below the bridge.

Officers found a car with Furukawa's wallet and a note in the front seat. The not said "I have jumped off bridge," and asked that a relative be notified. A sealed letter was also on the seat.

The man was reported climbing over the railing by Joseph J. Bewley of 1 Wood Lane, Fairfax, and Jerry Howe of San Francisco. Both sped to the toll plaza, but bridge guards saw no body fall.

Utility Commission Seeks Answer To Work Overload

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The California Public Utilities Commission proposes to streamline itself.

"The work load has progressed over the years," Commissioner George G. Grover said yesterday. "Each of the commissioners must decide an average of 50 cases each week—many of them transcending importance to the economy and welfare of the state—an almost impossible task."

Speaking before a joint meeting of the Los Angeles Transportation Club and the Interstate Commerce Commission Practitioners, Grover described two proposals:

1. Upgrading the job of secretary to executive secretary, giving him broad powers to supervise and coordinate PUC staff activities.

2. Greater use of so-called "proposed reports" by PUC examiners. Examiners would make and write decisions, subject to approval by the majority of commissioners.

Paris, Kremlim Join Forces On Viet Nam Peace Scheme

PARIS (UPI) — France announced today it has accepted the Soviet Union's proposal for joint action with a view towards convening a peace conference on Viet Nam.

The French diplomatic move was made public by Information Minister Alain Peyrefitte after a 3½ hour cabinet meeting today under President Charles de Gaulle.

The Soviet proposal for a common Franco - Soviet drive for the convening of a new Geneva conference on Indochina was made Feb. 23 in a note handed to De Gaulle by Soviet Ambassador Ergei Vinogradov.

De Gaulle gave Vinogradov his reply Monday.

Peyrefitte said the French government believed that unless peace is reestablished the Indochina conflict might gradually escalate into a major Asian war.

It was the first time in post-war history that France and the Soviet Union found themselves aligned on a key East-West issue.

De Gaulle's move to join hands with Russia in pressing for a peace conference was taken despite the risk of creating fresh diplomatic friction with Washington.

The United States is cool to the idea of any French - Soviet sponsorship of a peace conference that would put Paris and Moscow into the position of mediators.

De Gaulle's determination to press ahead with his self-appointed role reflected his belief that peace negotiations at an early date cannot be avoided, diplomatic observers said.

De Gaulle first called for "disengagement" of all major powers from Indochina Aug. 29, 1963, as a means toward reuniting Viet Nam.

Since then he has been warning all American visitors that the Vietnamese war cannot be won on the battlefield.

On Feb. 10 De Gaulle launched an appeal for the reconvening of the 1954 Geneva conference with the participation of Peking.

Biggest-Ever Mardi Gras Binge Ends

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The Crescent City nursed its king-sized headache today, caused by the king-sized fun from the biggest explosion of Mardi Gras merriment in history.

Police estimated "more than a million" people jammed into the city for yesterday's climax to the pre-Lenten carnival.

During the height of Mardi Gras revelry yesterday, 171-foot-wide Canal Street was jammed from store front to store front with gorillas, harem girls, spacemen, cowboys and Indians, clowns, Roman soldiers and the like.

The French Quarter, crowded on a normally good night, was a solid mass of humanity. Other streets and broad avenues along parade routes were equally packed.

Bagley In Washington For Redistrict Talks

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, who is in Washington, D.C., to confer with California senators on "reapportionment problems," is expected to return to Sacramento on Thursday.

Bagley and Assemblyman John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, flew to Washington Monday. Bagley's secretary in Sacramento, Diane Oldham, said the assemblyman planned to meet Senators Thomas H. Kuchel and George Murphy to discuss reapportionment problems.

Savio Gets Jail Term For Court Contempt

BERKELEY (AP) — Mario Savio, leader of a University of California polltical advocacy sit-in Dec. 2-3 that drew 700 arrests, was ordered to jail yesterday for contempt by a judge Savio said was guilty of "shameless hypocrisy."

Savio was among the 442 persons, mostly students, who waived their right to jury trials before Municipal Judge Rupert Crittenden. Two students demanded trial by jury.

When Savio's turn came up and he waived jury trial, the judge asked Savio if he understood what he was doing. The 22-year-old philosophy major from New York City replied:

"I fully understand the shameless hypocrisy to which this court is now reduced." He looked directly at the judge.

The judge asked Savio to repeat what he had said. The campus Free Speech Movement leader obliged, word for word. Savio was immediately held in contempt and ordered jailed for two days.

"I am very sorry you made this remark, and I am sorry to have to take this action," Judge Crittenden told Savio, who will spend tomorrow and Friday in Alameda County Jail.

"I realize that everyone has been under great pressure in these proceedings, and no one knows this more than myself because I have been subject to great pressures too," Judge Crittenden added.

The contempt incident occurred as 198 other sit-in demonstrators were in court, the second group to appear before the judge during the day.

A total of 647 demonstrators now have waived their right to jury trial. The two students who asked for jury trials were Donald Castlebury and John Roberts, who will be tried April 12. Another 48 students were either ill, excused for various reasons or been given more time to consider action. They are charged variously with trespassing, failure to disperse and resisting arrest.

VOTE SIGNUP FOILED—A line of club-carrying sheriff's deputies block entrance to Wilcox County courthouse in Camden, Ala., while some 60 Negroes yesterday attempted to visit voter registration office. After two attempts, the Negroes dispersed, when told the office was closed. (UPI Telephoto)

Vote Marchers Mourn Negro Victim

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Two funeral services today for a Negro who lost his life in Alabama's black belt civil rights drive underscore the intense struggle over voting power in this predominantly Negro area.

Civil rights leaders called for mass turnouts by Negroes at services here and in nearby Marion where Jimmie Lee Jackson, 26, a Negro laborer, was shot Feb. 18 in an outbreak of racial violence. He died eight days later in a Selma hospital.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., returning to Alabama after a speaking trip, planned to deliver the eulogy at Marion following a funeral service in Selma. Jackson was the first victim of violence in a new drive aimed at breaking the white political monopoly in the black belt — named for its fertile soil.

A hospital supervisor said Jackson stated he was shot by a state trooper. There has been no report on the incident from state police officials.

A Marion physician, Dr. A. F. Wilkerson, said yesterday he had examined the shooting victim and sent him to a Selma hospital because no blood was available in Marion.

The funeral services followed demonstrations in adjoining Wilcox County, where no Negroes are registered to vote, although they comprise 78 per cent of the population.

Negroes led by John Lewis, national chairman of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee, began a street march yesterday in Camden, the Wilcox County seat. They were halted and turned back by Sheriff P. C. Jenkins.

The nearly 60 Negroes got into their cars and left. They returned later in small groups and lined up in front of the red brick courthouse on the main street of Camden, a rural town of about 2,500.

Lewis and another Negro went inside and were told they would have to see the three members of the Board of Registrars about voting procedures. They left. A Negro farm agent, W. E. Streit, urged several of the Negro marchers to leave.

"I didn't want to see any bloodshed or anything," he said afterward.

Streit said a biracial committee of which he is a member had been meeting for about a month. He said: "The committee reached a conclusion that the people should register without friction."

Reds Spark Indonesian Takeover Of U.S. Held Rubber Plantations

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Reports today from North Sumatra said the Indonesian government would formally take over American rubber plantations there valued at $80 million.

Government officials in Jakarta described the action as a "management takeover." But Western diplomatic legal experts said it was a confiscation, and that the term was not being used so the Indonesian government could reject any claims by the American owners for compensation.

The plantations are owned by Goodyear and the U.S. Robber Co. They have an area of about 170,000 acres and include two hospitals, a rubber mill and several other buildings.

Reports from Medan said all American management authority would be surrendered to new Indonesian managers.

The Indonesian Communist party spearheaded the drive for seizure of the plantations, and a party leader yesterday urged the Indonesian government to take over the American Standard Vacuum Oil Co. and to confiscate the British-Dutch Shell Co.

The Indonesian government in the past has resisted Communist demands to take over the oil properties since the companies produce about $125 million a year in hard currency for the Indonesian treasury.

U.S. PONDERING MORE CUTS IN INDONESIA AID PROGRAMS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is reviewing its economic aid program to Indonesia, but a spokesman says no decisions have been made.

State Department press officer Marshall Wright said yesterday that about $1.4 million in U.S. assistance is ticketed for technical training, malaria eradication and aid to education in the Southeast Asian nation.

Much larger U.S. aid was cut off some time ago after President Sukarno told America to "go to hell" with its assistance.

Avalanche Hammers Bus, 14 Tourst Skiiers Dead

SALZBURG, Austria (UPI)—The death toll rose to 15 today in an avalanche which swept a bus carrying Swedish tourists over a 164-foot precipice.

Fourteen young people were killed outright in the disaster yesterday. The 15th victim died later in a hospital of injuries.

The bus carried 38 persons. Most of the victims were killed on impact when the rear of the bus smashed against a large tree after the fall and caved in.

The dressed "weiss lahn"—the white avalanche which strikes every few years—came on the Radstaetter Tauren Pass in the Alps yesterday, at an altitude of 3,500 feet between the Tyrolean villages of Untertauern and Obertauern.

Most of the victims were between 18 and 22 years of age. Ten passengers were injured and 13 escaped with shock. The bus driver, miraculously, was not hurt.

One of the lucky ones escaped through a window. "It was terrible," one witness said. "When I approached the scene I saw nothing but a huge pile of snow and a few parts of the smashed bus."

Storms Continue East Of Rockies

CHICAGO (AP) — The storm-stricken north-central part of the nation struggled through its third straight day of rugged winter weather today.

A blizzard that swept central and eastern parts of Dakotas cut visibility to a mile or less in blowing snow as temperatures skidded below zero. Snow spread across Minnesota and Wisconsin and changed to cold rain in Michigan and the Ohio Valley.

Two Intoxicated Drivers Get Fines

William N. Wagner, 50, Forest Knolls, was fined $166 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested by California Highway Patrol last Sunday on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

James Floyd Fish, 37, Treasure Island, was fined $220, also for drunken driving. He was arrested by the patrol Saturday on Highway 101.

Congress Set To Study LBJ Housing Ideas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Key members of Congress pledged today to get to work promptly on President Johnson's housing recommendations. Some of the proposals appear to face strong opposition.

Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., who will conduct the hearings on the proposed new department, said this legislation "will be given the highest priority."

Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., Housing subcommittee chairman, said he expected hearings on the far-reaching housing proposals to be started in two or three weeks and to be extensive.

The vote in the Senate government Operations Committee is likely to be close with the chairman, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., opposed to the legislation. However, Ribicoff thinks he can get it approved there.

There are two Democratic vacancies on the committee. The bill's prospects will depend on who fills them.

The choir of Tiburon Westminster Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. today will present a concert including Gabriel Faure's "Requiem" at the church with Charles Black and Selma Brix as soloists.

LICENSE DECAL STUNT MAY BE PRETTY COSTLY

EUREKA (AP) — James B. Gray, a 29-year-old plumber, was accused yesterday of using orange fingernail polish to paint over the white 1964 license decal tag so that it would appear he paid 1965 registration fees for his automobile.

Alteration of California license plates is a felony carrying a 1-to-14 year jail sentence if convicted. Gray was bound over to Humboldt County Superior Court.

Weird Suicide Compact Unfurls In Mexican Bar

ENSENADA, Mex. (AP) — Police booked Gilberto Valenzuela, 23, on a murder charge after he told of being the sole survivor of a four-way suicide plot conceived in a bar.

Killed were Manuel Marquez Munoz, 22, Octaviano Zarate Arce, also 22, and Juan Chavez Zepeda, 24.

Police said Valenzuela gave this account yesterday:

The quartet decided on the multiple suicides Feb. 25 and returned to the tavern Sunday to carry out the plan.

"I filled the gun with bullets as we walked toward the arroyo. We had drawn numbers to see who would go first and I was No. 4."

The four stood in a circle under a tree and Munoz shot himself in the head. Arce took the gun and shot himself in the head.

Zepeda tried to get Valenzuela to go next, then shot himself in the body.

"Juan began weaving. He didn't die immediately so I took the gun and shot him in the head."

Valenzuela said he put the gun in Zepeda's hand, ran back to town and got drunk.

Police said he was arrested in the same bar in which the plan was formed.

Good News Heard In Flood-Hit States

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—California and Oregon, the two states which suffered heaviest damage during the disastrous Christmas Week floods and storms, got good news yesterday from several fronts.

There were two announcements in Washington. One said hearings on legislation to aid the flood-stricken states would be held March 9, and the other said Federal Highway Administrator Rex Whitton approved 10 projects to repair flood-damaged roads and bridges.

Meanwhile in San Francisco, The Redwood Empire Association reported that restoration of flood-battered roads in Northern California was moving ahead of schedule.

The action by the Federal Highway Administrator was announced by Rep. Don H. Clausen, (R-Crescent City). He said the 10 projects totalling $1,919,000 approved by Whitton including six in California totalling $1,485,000.

The Redwood Empire Association announcement quoted Sam Helwer, district engineer for the California Division of Highways at Eureka, as saying Northern California would have "good, trafficiable two-way roads in all areas well before June 1."

POLICE STATION SEARCH PLANNED

Sausalito Will Shop Around After Hearing High Portable Building Cost

The Sausalito City Council decided last night to shop around a little more for a temporary police station after discovering it could cost as much as $25,000 to bring in a portable building from Oakland.

Councilmen had earlier hoped to get the building for about $12,000, but the price tag seemed to expand before their eyes as City Mgr. Charles A. Brown spelled out costs involved in making it ready for use.

Cost of the building itself, he said, would be $9,250, but another $4,600 would be needed to renovate it. Next would come additional expense for painting it, building a foundation and other details.

When Brown got through quoting figures, the apparent total stood at nearly $19,000. He said it could be several thousand more.

Brown suggested this amount might be better spent on a more permanent facility. He suggested that the city look at more buildings, even at the risk of losing its option on this one. The council agreed.

Earthquake Study Is Asked By Board

Marin County supervisors yesterday asked for a study to determine if the county building code requires adequate earthquake protection, particularly in filled areas.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker noted there have been reports from geologists on danger of building on filled land near earthquake faults. He suggested that the county insure that it has adequate protection.

Supervisors asked the department of public works to analyze the building code.

Chairman Peter H. Behr asked that the department also provide a delineation of the San Andreas fault, which runs through Marin.

The report is scheduled to be presented to the board in a month.

Parks, Rec Member Vote Postponed

Marin County supervisors yesterday postponed vote on an ordinance amendment that would add two members to the county parks and recreation commission until after a joint workshop session with the commission.

The board and the commission are scheduled to meet at 8 p.m. Monday. Supervisors felt that some further amendments might result from that meeting.

Supervisors have unofficially agreed that the five-member commission should be increased by adding two members-at-large.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker suggested yesterday that the two at-large commissioners be appointed for two-year terms.

(Actually, as the present ordinance merely provides for five commissioners, with no requirement that they represent supervisorial districts, so all in fact serve "at large.")

Seashore Road Bill Proposed

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — State Route 17, from Richmond-San Rafael Bridge to Olema, would be extended to connect with the Point Reyes National Seashore access road, under a bill introduced by State Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

Unless the state route is extended, Marin would have about a mile of road to be constructed completely by local funds, County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost explained.

Foreign Bases Cost Study Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has ordered a new study aimed at finding economies in the nation's military support activities in France, Spain, Italy and Japan.

In an announcement yesterday the Defense Department stressed that no combat units are to be redeployed to the United States because of the study.

The investigation will revolve around logistics administrative functions, civilian employment, dependent support, overseas procurement, construction and facilities.

Mental Health Aid Budget Cuts Assailed

Reducing the state budget by slashes in the mental hygiene sections was branded as "pennywise" today by Mrs. Herbert J. L. Baum, president of the Marin Assn. for Mental Health.

"New medical knowledge enables us to treat the mental patient more effectively," said Mrs. Baum. "It is not only inhumane but also poor economy to deprive the mentally ill citizen of a chance of recovery and early return to self-support in in community. This would be the effect of the cuts proposed by Mr. Post (A. Alan Post, legislative analyst)."

Student, 17, Faces Hit-Run Charge

A 17-year-old high school boy was charged with felony hit-run driving and assault with a deadly weapon yesterday for allegedly running down a Sleepy Hollow home owner with his car.

Booked was Jim Odetto, Sir Francis Drake High School junior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo J. Odetto of 281 Fawn Drive, Sleepy Hallow.

Young Odetto drove into Evans' yard on Feb. 18 on a $5 dare bet, said Sheriff's Juvenile Deputy William Johansen. Who offered the dare has not yet been learned, he said, but there were "three or four" youths in the car with the driver.

Evans told sheriff's officers a carload of youngsters drove onto his property just before 8 p.m. on Feb. 18 He started to close the gate to trap them in the yard, The driver headed the car through the gate, knocking Evans into a ditch.

Evans told officers he has been harassed for over a year by juveniles.

Odetto has a police record and was on probation from a prior offense when arrested yesterday, Deputy Johansen said.

Two Boys Hurt As Bicycle Strikes Car

Two boys, Lonnie Wong, 10 of 124 Humboldt Avenue, and his passenger, Mark Mathews, 10, of 208 Scenic Avenue, both San Anselmo, were slightly hurt when their bycycle ran into the side of a car driven by Brian H. Grove, 16, of 40 Yolanda Drive, San Anselmo, yesterday.

Grove told San Anselmo police he was crossing Taylor Avenue heading north on Saunders Avenue at 3:36 p.m. when the bicycle hit the left rear door. Neither boy required hospitalization.

Supervisors Pay Rent Bill For Dead Man

Marin County supervisors yesterday paid the rent on a plush waterfront apartment in Sausalito which was sealed off during a murder investigation last March.

Supervisors awarded $320.83 to Robert G. Anderson, landlord of the apartment at 203-A Valley Street where Donald G. Corbett Jr., dairy company executive was found slain.

The apartment was locked from March 30 to May 4 during the investigation, and Anderson filed a claim against the county for loss of rent during that period.

Anderson also sought $79.50 for "discoloration to walls and floors" by graphite during the seach for fingerprints, but this was disallowed.

The two men who killed Corbett, Robert Lee Jones and John Lee King, were traced to Hawaii convicted in Marin Superior Court and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Sanitary Board Bows To State Test Demand

Directors of Richardson Bay Sanitary District last night agreed to waive objections on state testing requirements and proceed with a program that may cost $5,000 a year.

The Bay Regional Water Pollution Control Board last November ordered quarterly tests of discharges both at the plant and in the bay. Directors of the Richardson district protested the requirements and argued that the control board was imposing harsher requirements than imposed on other districts and plants.

Richardson director Stanley G. Bennett, who attended a control board meeting last month, told fellow directors last night that the state requirements vary according to conditions. Tiburon discharges are made in deep water, so off-shore testing is not required.

The Richardson district will probably rent a boat for the off-shore test. It will have to train one of its operators to take the samples and will contract with a San Francisco firm for the laboratory analysis, director Samuel A. Fletcher explained today.

Fletcher said off-shore testing might be excused by the control board after continued satisfactory tests. "That's what we're going to shoot for," he said.

The board discussed but took no action on line cleaning service, and gave conditional approval for sewer installations serving Hampton Garden Apartments on Knoll Way in Strawberry.

Marin City Girl's Essay Wins Contest

Dinah Miller, fifth grade pupil at Richardson Bay School, today was announced as winner of the Sausalito "Sister City" essay contest with a composition which said he would like children from Vina del Mar, Chile, to visit her school because "it is exciting."

Dinah is10. She said, too, she would like a Chilean child to live with her so she will have someone to play with and "help me in my Spanish."

Dinah lives in Marin City. She wrote that her father, if a Vina Del Mar youngster visited, might take them to the beach to explore and look for shells. "I hope we can be good friends," she said.

Also winners in the contest sponsored by Sausalito Artists and Merchants in celebration of "Sister City Week," were Karen Pimentel of Marinship and Hendrika Hartogh of Sausalito, both eighth graders.

An excerpt from Karen's essay reads: "Our school is full of kids. Normal kids but so different from anyone else like every other kid in the world. Not a large school and not too advanced academically speaking. It's a plain normal school, of course everyone thinks of their school as such.

"It is composed of kids, janitors, teachers, other personnel, a gym, a cafeteria, a home ec. room, a shop room and a large music facility . . . most girls like sewing if you don't run over your finger. Cooking is fun too if you don't mistake the lard for biscuit batter."

Hendrika wrote: "In our People-to-People program we exchange business, ideas and literature. Another city seems so far away, but if you write people there and get to know them, it brings the city much closer and broadens our understanding of that country."

Sausalito Merchants Drop Protests On Parking Lots

Sausalito merchants have withdrawn their protests against the state of downtown parking after "getting all the facts," City Mgr. Charles A. Brown told the city council last night.

Several merchants appeared at the council meeting last week to complain that changes in the plaza parking lot were going to hurt business.

Brown said he has since got together with the unhappy businessmen and explained the "total project," including the fact that the "high cost of pencils" is only a temporary condition.

John R. Minton, owner of Creative Arts at 22 El Portal, had said it would, in effect, cost a shopper 35 cents for a 10-cent pencil. Brown said this was based on the present temporary parking rates, which will be revised downward when the lot is rebuilt.

Noting the presence of several students from Redwood High School's government classes, councilmen drew an object lesson.

Councilman Melvin S. Wax said "it would be helpful if the merchants would talk to the city manager before they fire off hot letters to us or the newspapers. They should first get the facts."

The Sausalito City Council Also:

1. Approved plans and specifications for curbs and gutters on 732 feet of Sausalito Boulevard, approving City Engineer B. J. Whitlow's request to extend the project nearly 200 feet from that originally budgeted.

2. Went over a letter from the Sausalito Citizens Council which attempted to set forth guidelines for areas of need when the city drafts its 1966 budget.

3. Opened a hearing on the Northwestern Pacific Railroad's request to abandon its southern Marin tracks, then postponed taking a stand until learning how the move would affect various segments of the city's business and industry.

4. Granted a use permit to the Glad Hand Restaurant, incuding a requirement that the restaurant move to city-owned outboard land if the city council needsits present site to widen Bridgeway.

5. Agreed to sell a 615 square foot strip on Bridgeway next to Ernie's Waterfront Restaurant, which the city did not know it had a claim on until it came up in a recent, complicated legal dispute.

6. Denied the claim of Lory Cook of 305 Richardson Street for $15,000 damages resulting from a Dec. 3 fall on property which may be partly city owned.

7. Passed an ordinance requiring use permits where dwellings or hotel rooms are built on the ground floor of buildings in the business district.

8. Granted a permit to residents of Locust Road to privately repair the street, a city right-of-way, to less than city standards. Councilmen decided the dead-end street has little hope of being brought to standard through an assessment district.

Tiburon Planner Post Hangs Fire

Tiburon city councilmen agree that the new city will need a planning director, but last night disagreed on when he will be needed.

Some councilmen want to wait until a citizen planning advisory committee completes its report. Some want to wait until budget figures for the coming fiscal year are tallied.

Councilmen meeting at Del Mar Schoot voted 4-1 to place the proposal on the "suspense calendar" of city business, where it could again be considered at any time.

Voting against the postponement was Councilman Fred C. Hannahs, who said he wanted to immediately begin looking for a planning director whose job would be to take long-range looks into the city's future and do special studies on planning problems.

Councilmen agreed that from now on only matters approved by the planning commission would automatically come before the council for review, and that persons who had their planning request turned down by the commission could appeal to the council. Up to now every matter on which the planning commission reached a decision automatically came before the council.

The Tiburon City Council Also:

1. Voted new council procedures, including closing the agenda at noon on Wednesday before the following Monday meeting and setting up a council budget committee.
2. Approved a resolution to state officials urging adoption of recommendations contained in the McAteer report advocating a San Francisco Bay Conservation Study Commission.
3. Approved a loading zone on Juanita Lane for the Corner Market.
4. Appointed Councilmen Leo Souza and John S. Hoffmire Jr. to look into offers of renting or leasing city offices in the stucco Northwestern Pacific Railroad building on Paradise Drive and in another office in the building at 1610 Tiburon Boulevard where the city now rents a room.

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Governor Edmund G. Brown today appointed James R. Bids To Be Opened On New Quentin Activity Building

Bids will be opened in Sacramento on March 30 for construction of an inmate activity building at San Quentin Prison, estimated to cost $480,000.

The 30,000-square-foot, steel and concrete gymnasium building will provide the following facilities:

A basketball court, handball courts, a boxing ring, volley ball, tennis and badminton facilities, and wrestling and tumbling areas. There will be equipment storage rooms, showers and a small mezzanine for offices and special storage.

Replacement of boilers and electrical service molificationss in connection with the new inmate activity building will be another project, estimated to cost $185,000.

Bids on the boiler project will be opened on April 13.

The 40-year-old boilers will be replaced by a single boiler, complete with related equipment. Included in the project is the construction of a 1,600 square foot, two-story steel frame and brick building addition to the boiler house, plus alteration work.

Money for the two projects comes from the $380 million state construction bond issue, Proposition 2, voted last November.

The average weekly earnings of manufacturing production workers has increased from $58.32 in 1950 to approximately $103 in 1964.

Office Space Meeting Asked

Directors of the Corte Madera Sanitary District last night called for a joint meeting with the Corte Madera Town Council to discuss moving district offices into the soon-to-be-remodeled town hall.

No date was set for the meeting, but directors said they wanted to know the lease cost for the space and the services to be provided.

Directors agreed to serve property on Elm Avenue inside the City of Larkspur, even though the area is outside the district. The land drains away from Larkspur's sewers.

Some Vet Exemption Claims Understated

This is indicated in a recently completed annual test audit of veterans property tax exemption claims filed in 1964, reported by County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel.

However, a small percentage still choose to gamble on getting by with an understatement of their assets, Broemmel said. In comparing income from dividends and interest reported on income tax returns with assets declared on the exemption claim, some marked inconsistencies were noted.

Broemmel has since interviewed the applicants involved and several exemptions have been cancelled, he reported. A full report on these proceedings will be made to Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales and to the Grand Jury, he announced.

The qualify for the exemption of $1,000 assessed valuation from taxation, the applicant cannot own assets of $5,000 or more in assessed value (23 per cent of market value).

Board Asked To Approve Saucelito Canal Proposal

Bothin Real Estate Co. of San Francisco yesterday asked the Marin Board of Supervisors to approve a new realignment of the Saucelito Canal in Richardson Bay.

Realignment and relocation of the canal is essential for creation of an assessment district which will dredge the canal at private expense, the company said in a letter to the board signed by R. H. Gatley Jr., secretary.

The dredging, it said, "Is in turn absolutely imperative for development of the city of Mill Valley small craft harbor and the utilization of Richardson Bay for pleasure boating purposes."

Bothin noted that last September supervisors adopted an amendment under which the canal was realigned "a considerable distance to the southwest" from its historic location. The firm asked that it be moved back northeast into the "publicly owned water and tidelands area commonly known as Railroad Avenue."

Dredging will be financially feasible only if the canal is located on publicly owned land, thereby avoiding the high cost of acquiring a right-of-way over private property, the letter said.

The firm asked for a hearing before the board ,but Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said any amendment to the master plan must first be heard by the county planning commission.

The Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Authorized asking the State Department of Finance to provide a special population estimate, at cost not to exceed $545, with a view toward gaining an increase in motor vehicle in-lieu funds for the county.

2. Urged Congress to provide additional funds for acquisition of property for Point Reyes National Seashore and development of State Highway 17 to provide access to the seashore.

3. Awarded George Giannecchini of Mill Valley $200 in settlement of his claim for $225 for the loss of a heifer which was attacked by wild dogs at his Tennessee Valley ranch.

4. Sent a telegram to Rep. Donald H. Clausen urging him to sign a petition to facilitate action on a reapportionment amendment to the constitution that would allow one house of a state legislature to be elected on a basis other than population. Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker dissented.

5. Proclaimed March 27 as Dominican Convent and San Francisco Symphony Day and complimented the convent for its leadership in providing concerts.

6. Set July 1-5 as the period of the 1965 Marin County Fair.

7. Authorized left turn and pedestrian traffic signals along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at College Avenue, Bon Air Road, La Cuesta Drive and Eliseo Drive, and set bid opening for March 22 at 2 p.m.

8. Authorized a traffic signal at Manuel T. Freitas Parkway and Las Gallinas Avenue Terra Linda, and set bid opening for March 22 at 2 p.m.

9. Commended Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato, Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District director, for his efforts which averted a boost in Greyhound commute rates for Marin.

10. Approved a tentative map of Horseshoe Hill Unit 2, a 17-acre subdivision in Bolinas, which was opposed by the Horseshoe Hill Neighborhood Assn. The vote was 4-1, with Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen dissenting.

11. Received a recommendation from Mrs. Dorothy Olson of Fairfax that all utility lines go underground in the same trench when natural gas lines are extended to San Geronimo Valley.

12. Granted the Presbytery of the Redwoods a permit to construct a church at Donahue Street and Drake Avenue, Marin City, subject to approval of landscaping plans.

13. Appointed Marjorie C. Bird as deputy clerk and Pat Sanderson as deputy clerk, municipal court; and Martin Farley, as maintenance man, public works department.

Driver Charged After Accident

A woman driver was charged with being drunk in and about an automobile after a two-car accident on the Mission Avenue off-ramp of Highway 101 in San Rafael at 5 p.m. yesterday in which one person was injured.

The charge was placed by the California Highway Patrol against Dorothy A. Christensen, 35, of 605 Las Gallinas Road, Terra Linda. Highway patrolmen said her car hit one driven by James A. Rowen, 46, of 360 Johnstone Avenue, Marinwood, which had stopped in traffic. Rowen's wife, Sara, 45, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a bruised shin and scraped knee.

Mrs. Christensen, freed on $110 bail, is to appear Friday in Marin Municipal Court.

School Site Meet

Further discussion with architects on the Red Hill School site is set for 7:30 p.m. today at Isabel Cook School by the San Anselmo School District board.

AN EYE TO BE SEEN

California Assemblyman Hale Ashcraft, R-Rancho Santa Fe (San Diego County), today demonstrates in Sacramento how a "safety eye running light" could be installed in automobile grille to halt the old "I just didn't see the other car" excuse. The light would function day or night, whenever the car's ignition was turned on. (UPI Telephoto)

Business Tax Help Idea Gains Ground

SACRAMENTO (AP)—An Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee report has given new ammunition to opponents of the $240 million-a-year property tax on business inventories.

The report, released yesterday, said the tax is driving warehouse firms from California and raising costs to business men who try to reduce their inventories by the first Monday of March, when county assessors assess property.

The report was prepared by committee consultants who suggested changes in the business inventory tax. But they warned if businessmen were exempt from the tax, revenue must come from other sources.

Committee chairman Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland, has previously proposed a tax bill to exempt businessmen from the levy.

Finance Director Hale Champion said the Brown administration probably won't agree with the Petris plan, but will seek property tax reforms designed to save businessmen money.

Redistricting Confronts State Taxation Board

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Reapportionment, already bad news to state senators and assemblymen, threatened another group of elected officials today — the State Board of Equalization.

The Assembly Elections and Reapportionment Committee is compiling figures that may be used to realign the districts of the four members of the powerful tax collecting agency.

A legislative source said the U.S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" decision means the voters must have equal representation whenever they elect someone.

"If we elect our board of equalization by districts, every man's vote has to count as much as any other man's," he said.

Board member Paul Leake of Woodland, represents the third district, with a population of 1,373,000.

John Lynch of Sacramento has 3,707,000 in his second district and George R. Reilly of San Francisco 2,571,000 in his first district.

Cohen Memory Lapse Claimed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mickey Cohen has suffered a partial memory loss that may prevent him from answering certain questions in his forthcoming tax trial, his attorney says.

Jack Dahlstrum told a news conference Tuesday that the gambler suffered brain damage when attacked with a lead pipe wielded by a fellow prisoner in the federal penitentiary in Atlanta in 1963.

Cohen, then serving a 15-year sentence for income tax evasion, is back in Los Angeles to face a civil suit in which the government claims $347,000 in unpaid income taxes in connection with another conviction, for which Cohen earlier served 3½ years.

Tour Guides Urged For Civic Center

Marin County Civic Center, a proven tourist attraction, may soon have guides for the thousands of visitors annually.

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr suggested yesterday that supervisors consider hiring guides for the center and that College of Marin students could fill the bill.

"We could try it out on a weekend basis at the start," Behr suggested.

He noted that sometimes sheriff's deputies stationed at the Civic Center act as guides, and felt it would be better if regular guides handled the chore.

Auditor - Controller Michael Mitchell said the county gets about 400 inquiries a year about the Civic Center from all sectors of the world.

Double Sessions Fate Depends On Tax Vote

Voters will be asked then to approve continuance for an unspecified time of the current $1.65 per $100 assessed valuation tax levy limit for the general operating budget.

This year, two classes have occupied the partitioned multi-purpose room. This has not been very successful, Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff said. Alternatives would be double sessions or rental of portable classrooms.

Trustees are also considering the possibility of team teaching in the multi-purpose room McCunniff said it would be possible to put three classes together under four teachers.

The matter will be discussed again at the next board meeting, March 16. Meanwhile, trustees will attend a public hearing at the school at 8 p.m. tomorrow to answer questions on the tax election.

Trustees last night adopted a 180-day school calendar for next school year, beginning Sept. 13 and ending June 17.

Trustee William G. McBride was absent.

Morton Agrees To GOP Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — GOP National Chairman Dean Burch's assertion that the Republicans have to recast their long-time party image to win elections got the endorsement today of Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky.

Morton, a former national chairman who heads the Republican senatorial campaign committee, said he agrees with Burch's contention that the seeds of the 1964 election defeat go back for years in which the GOP failed to respond to needs of the times.

Morton referred to a report made yesterday by Burch.

Marin Vessel 'Stars' In Film

Edward Mebien of Point Reyes and his fishing boat Elenor S. turned movie stars for a few hours today as the Coast Guard shot a technical film on parachute drops of portable pumps to fishing vessels.

Co-starring with Medin and Elenor S. was a Grummond Albatross, a two engined amphibian aircraft which made the drops off Point Reyes this morning.

The operations were being recorded on film by three cameramen: one in the Albatross, one in a helicopter and a third on shore. The pumps are used to pump out water from leaky or damaged vessels.

Muslims Get Riot Sentences

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Eleven Black Muslims were sentenced yesterday in connection with a riot outside a sect temple which Superior Court Judge David Coleman said "probably was one of the most uncalled for riots imaginable."

The judge, who presided over the men's 1963 trial, which was attended daily by recently slain Malcolm X, refused to reduce prison sentences for four of the defendants.

The convictions of the 11 defendants by an all - white jury were based on incidents April 27, 1962, outside a temple in which one Muslim was killed and a dozen men — including police — were injured.

MUSIC REVIEW

Singers, Handbell Ringers Brighten Seminary Chapel

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Stewart Memorial Chapel of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo proved an ideal concert hall last night for the Marin Pro Musica singers and Marin Handbell Ringers.

The concert honored the first meeting ever held in Marin of the San Francisco chapter of the American Guild of Organists, but no organ music was included.

Wilbur F. Russell directed the two troups in a program of mostly 16th and 17th century music, both sacred and secular.

Never have the handbells been heard to better advantage, for acoustics were just right for making their tone brilliant.

The team of nine ringers with Russell making a 10th opened the program effectively with Russell's "Joyous Change", an interesting composition in which the bells are rung not in melody but according to mathematical formula.

Other highlights among their numbers were a prize-winning "Little Suite for Bells" by former seminary student Dick L. Kite; "Bells of St. Mary's" in an arrangement by Barbara Klein, one of the bell ringers who also arranged some of the other numbers, and Moussorgsky's "Great Gate of Kiev."

A delightful Tyrolean folk song and Puerto Rican tune with castanettes showed that bells seem to have an affinity for the folk idiom.

The 15 Pro Musica singers were most impressive in the closing group of English madrigals. Part of the reason was their very evident enjoyment and entering into the spirit of these entertaining, informal songs.

The group also did some fine singing, especially in slow, pianissimo passages, of three compositions by Tomas Luis de Victoria, three motets by Thomas Morley and a Mass for four voices by William Byrd.

NOT-SO-QUICK BROWN FOX

The more lifelike this stuffed brown fox appears, the better Sister Thomasita of Cardinal Stritch College in Milwaukee will like it. She is one of a panel of judges checking qualifications of persons applying yesterday for position as taxidermist in city's public museum. The fox is one of a flock of stuffed animals brought into the normally staid chambers of the civil service commission. (UPI Telephoto)

Candidates Swarm On School Ballots

With the deadline for filing two days away, 55 persons have filed to run for seats on the county's school boards in the April 20 election.

Deadline is Friday.

Two tiny districts, Lincoln and Nicasio, have no candidates so far, and 11 other districts have fewer candidates than there are seats to be filled.

Thirty-six of those who have filed are incumbents. Another man, Alan M. Swabacker of Novato, is running for the new unified board which will replace his own. He is president of the San Jose district board. It will dissolve July 1 when the merger with Novato schools takes effect.

Not included in these filings are candidates for the San Rafael Board of Education. Two members of it will be elected in the municipal election April 12, but filing for that election does not close until March 12. Announced candidates so far are Lawrence M. Kramer Jr., an incumbent trustee of Dixie School District, and Walter R. Castro Jr.

Candidates by district are:

Novato's Lerch Holds County To Resignation

Alton Lerch of Novato is a man who believes implicitly in the Marin County Board of Supervisors' new policy of having all members of county commissions resign when new supervisors are elected.

Lerch offered his resignation from the Marin County Redevelopment Agency Commission when the supervisors requested the mass resignations in January.

No action was taken on it then, but Lerch submitted it again yesterday. And this time, he informed the board he does not want to be re-appointed.

In his letter to the supervisors, which he read at last night's redevelopment agency meeting, he noted that his term will expire April 27 and said:

"I hereby request that you do not reappoint me on that date.

"My request is to adhere to the desire of the board to effectuate its new policy of commission appointments on a county-wide level instead of the traditional supervisorial district level."

Sportsman Stricken

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Jamie H. Smith, prominent California sportsman and member of the State Fish and Game Commission, suffered a heart attack today and was reported in critical condition at a Washington, D.C. hospital.

Districts' Pipelines May Duplicate South Of Base

North Marin County Water District directors last night agreed to consider budgeting $60,000 to extend water mains south of Hamilton Air Force Base.

The new line would parallel, for a short distance, a 14-inch Marin Municipal Water District line which serves the air base. However, the Marin Municipal District cannot serve the area between the base and the crest of hills north of Marinwood because it is in the North Marin district. The air base is not in either district.

Decision for the extension, which would entail about 2,000 feet of 14-inch main and an equal length of 12-inch main, came on request of John A. Lyddon for water service to a trailer park on 120 acres south of the base, for which he already has planning commission approval.

Part or all of the cost could be paid from proceeds of a 1960 water district bond issue, said Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager. Directors agreed to consider appropriation for the extension in the fiscal 1966 budget.

Water district directors expressed desire to allow more fishing in Stafford Lake, but noted there is a problem of fencing off the area to be fished. Gilbert was asked to report what might be done at the March 16 meeting.

Banker To Face Bad Check Trial

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Officials of the now-defunct San Francisco National Bank have testified that former president Don C. Silverthorne cashed $25,000 in checks when his personal account was overdrawn by $934.93.

Municipal Judge George Maloney yesterday ordered Silverthorne to stand trial on a bad check charge and ordered him bound over to Superior Court, where a trial date will be set soon.

San Francisco National was closed as insolvent by the U.S. comptroller of the currency. Depositors each were paid up to $10,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Radar Station Proposed As Annex To Present County Juvenile Hall

Marin County supervisors agreed yesterday to explore the possibility of using the Air Forces Radar Squadron atop Mount Tamalpais for a juvenile detention home.

The radar station, scheduled to be deactivated by June 30, 1966, could take part of the load off Juvenile Hall, suggested board chairman Peter H. Behr.

Supervisors were reviewing a projected building program at Juvenile Hall that would cost about three-quarters of a million dollars when Behr suggested use of the radar station.

Last year, Dean Meyer, chairman of the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission, proposed that the radar station be converted to a county-wide recreational and youth work camp facility.

Recreation Director Kelvin J. Nelson said the station has a bowling alley, pool, gynasium, tennis courts, library and medical facilities and housing other than barracks.

The station is on Marin Municipal Water District land.

Behr noted that it is a security facility already, and said it could accomodate younger boys and girls and those progressing in rehabilitation.

Juvenile Hall projects listed in the county's proposed five-year, $20 million dollar capital projects program include a girls' wing, $300,500, a boys' wing, $325,900, athletic field expansion alterations for medical facilities and a court wing.

Supervisors postponed approval of any of the projects until after the idea of using the radar station is fully studied.

During their review of the capital projects program, they approved the program for construction of the Veterans Memorial Auditorium at the Civic Center, to cost $2,163,200.

W. P. (Doc) Duhamel, representing the Veterans Building Committee, urged the board to appoint separate committees for the fairgrounds and auditorium.

Supervisors have postponed appointment of an auditorium-fair committee that would advise on the overall planning.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss also urged a separate fair board, noting that an auditorium committee would be dealing with county funds while the fair board would be dealing with state funds.

Supervisors gave tentative approval to the construction of a heliport at the Civic Center, estimated to cost $8,000, scheduled for appropriation in the 1969 budget.

They also approved construction of a turning basin in Gallinas Creek on county property at the southeast corner of the fairgrounds, estimated to cost $40,000, scheduled for appropriation in the 1970 budget.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said the plan is that any major marina in the area will be privately financed, if feasible, with the county providing only the turning basis.

Alto Leader Fires Back At Mayor

Alto incorporation committee members took issue today with Mill Valley Mayor Michael Wornum's statement that the city is not attempting to "gobble up" Alto.

Carl O. Heynen Jr., a committee member, declared the situation in the Alto corridor was brought about by Mill Valley's "gerrymandering annexations in the past."

Wornum made the statement at Monday night's Mill Valley City Council meeting. But immediately after it, noted Heynen, City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer said the city council had instructed him to go ahead with annexing territory contiguous to Mill Valley.

"This contradicts the mayor's statement," said Heynen.

"The so-called unfriendliness between Alto and Mill Valley has been building up for a number of years due to actions of city officials," Heynen said.

He added that proponents of Alto incorporation did not circulate a petition to annex to the City of Tiburon. This was done, he said, by Dr. Robert C. Cogswell of Strawberry.

Resurge Of Interest In Donkey Baseball

NEW PORT RICHEY, Fla. (AP) — Donkey baseball, popular in Florida some 30 years ago, has staged a comeback.

Sausalito Seeks SOS' Vanishing Petition File

The Save Our Shores Assn. caused the Sausalito City Council a double dilemma last night by asking it to return petitions with 1,000 signatures submitted last May during hearings on bay filling.

The dilemma came about because the council:

1. Had never been asked to return anybody's petitions before.
2. Cannot find them.

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said the group, formerly called the Save Our Shores Committee, wants the names for membership solicitation.

City Atty. Leland H. Jordan said the petitions, if found, could be copied, but the originals should stay at city hall.

Council members said they had looked high and low in their own papers as well as city hall files. For the moment, Jordan's opinion seemed to be a moot point.

"We are continuing our search," Mayor Jan Paul Dyk assured the association.

Conservation Group Forms

A greater San Rafael Chapter of the Marin Conservation League was formed last night with Mrs. Arthur T. Knutson of 639 Barberry Lane, Terra Linda, as acting chairman.

About 20 people were present at the formation meeting, led by league president Mrs. Mary Summers. The group chose Mrs. Harold Himmelsbach as acting vice chairman and Mrs. Joan Lindlow as acting secretary.

First meeting was set for 8 p.m., March 11, at a place to be slected later. The group decided to draw membership from the area of the San Rafael General Plan, which includes all of Las Gallinas Valley. A membership drive will be the first order of business, Mrs. Knutson said.

Meeting Not Held

Bail Procedures Review Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A three-point program for a statewide review of bail procedures was proposed today by Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch.

Lynch, addressing the first of three regional conferences on bail and pre-trial release procedures, said the proposal calls for:

Experimentation with possible alternatives to bail.

2500 BRIDGEWAY AT SAUSALITO

Market Dips At Close; Trading Heavy

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregularly lower today in heavy trading.

Strength in some airline and electronics was a feature.

KLM Airlines sliced a 3-point gain to a point or so.

Kennecott held a gain of 3 points. Texas Gulf Sulphur was another 3-point gainer.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6.6 million shares compared with 5.99 million Tuesday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Buyers rushed into the airlines. KLM rose nearly 3 points in a continued advance. Pan American World Airways also was in big demand, rising about 2. American Airlines ran up more than 2, Delta more than a point.

Thiokol looked as if it was repeating its role of Tuesday as most active stock, spurting more than a point in heavy trading.

Makers of color television sets, boosted by a report of booming demand for sets, were solidly ahead.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Stock Reduction Sale Might Mean Retirement From Shop

Stock reduction sale now going on at Henrietta's Children's Shop, San Rafael, may result in Mrs. Henrietta Lewis retiring from business completely.

She took over the store (formerly Denton's Children's Shop) 14 or 15 years ago as Henrietta Feinstein, a widow living in Petaluma, and commuted to Marin about five years before moving here. A few years ago she remarried and now lives in Greenbrae.

Loberg

Waltermire

ROBERT F. LOBERG of San Rafael has joined the nationwide investment form of Francis I. DuPont and Co. as manager of the unlisted trading department in San Francisco. He served 10 years with J. Barth and Co. there.

Loberg is vice president of the San Francisco Traders Assn. and president of the Terra Linda Valley Property Owners Assn.

WELLS FARGO BANK PROMOTIONS: Clinton E. Waltermire of San Rafael has been moved up to credit officer at the San Anselmo office. Formerly operations officer, he joined the bank in 1946, serving in San Anselmo eight years. He was in the Sausalito office from 1954 to 1960, then reassigned to San Anselmo.

Steffan O. Schomaker of Sausalito has been promoted to credit officer at the Market-Montgomery office, San Francisco. He joined Wells Fargo in 1959 and serves in the real estate department. He is a native San Franciscan and a graduate of University of San Francisco.

William D. Knick of Belvedere has been promoted to assistant secretary in the business development department, trust division San Francisco. A graduate of University of California, he received his master's degree there just prior to joining Wells Fargo in 1963. He was a scholarship student at the University of Sydney in Australia in 1957.

JAMES R. BARRY, brother of Mother Justin and Sister Martin of Dominican College, San Rafael, has been appointed assistant vice president of Hibernia Bank, San Francisco. He has been assistant manager of the San Jose office since it opened and a Hibernia employee since 1934, after graduating from University of California.

JACK G. NIXON of Lucas Valley, assistant manager of the Edward Wachsman agency of State Mutual Life Insurance Co., received three awards last week from the company: Award for membership in the "Circle of Honor" for selling a million dollars worth of life insurance in 1964; an award for leading the entire San Rafael agency in life insurance sales, and one for the sale of health insurance. He ranked fifth nationally among 750 agents.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Deductions Used By Employees

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, C.P.A.

If you are an employee, the Internal Revenue Service says you can deduct any of the following expenses that apply to you subject to the specific rules for each one.

Wikel

Work clothes and uniforms. Generally, the cost and maintenance of work clothing is a personal expense and not deductible. However, if your occupation is one which specifically requires special apparel or equipment as a condition of employment, its cost and maintenance are deductible if it is not adaptable to general or continued usage so as to take the place of ordinary clothing. Deductible work clothes expense includes the cost of special apparel and equipment required in the occupations of ballplayers, firemen, police officers, letter carriers, nurses, and civilian faculty members of a military school.

Musicians and entertainers. The cost of theatrical clothing and accessories used by professional musicians and entertainers is deductible if used soely in the course of their employment.

Transportation employees' uniforms. The cost of uniforms of transportation employees—air, rail, bus, etc., is deductible if they are used solely in the course of their employment. However, the cost is not deductible when the uniforms are equipped with snap buttons, the removal of which permits the conversion of the uniform to general use.

Protective clothing. Some occupations require safety shoes and helmets, others require work gloves, oil clothes and rubber boots, such as are worn by commercial fishermen. Costs of these are deductible.

Armed forces uniforms. If you are a reservist in the Armed Forces you may deduct, to the extent not reimbursed, the cost of your uniform if it may legally be worn only while performing duties as a reservist. In computing the deduction, the cost must be reduced by any nontaxable allowance you receive on account of such expenses. If, however, you are on full-time duty in the Armed Forces, the cost of your uniform is not deductible.

School teachers. Amounts which you pay for a substitute teacher to take your place are deductible. However, you are not entitled to this deduction to the extent that it is allocable to amounts excluded as sick pay.

Subscriptions to professional journals, etc., relating to your business or profession.

Membership dues in professional societies.

Union dues, related to your employment, but assessments for accident, death, and sick benefits are not.

Fees paid to an employment agency for procuring employment.

Cost of periodic physical examinations paid by you and which are required by your employer to establish your physical fitness to retain your job.

Moving expenses for more than 20 miles closer to your job or for a new job.

Traveling expenses not reimbursed by your employer.

Automobile expenses not reimbursed by your employer.

These are all tricky and subject to many ifs, ands and buts, so be sure you know the rules before you claim the deduction.

HELLO DOLLY—That man adjusting the hair on the dress shop mannequin is not a window dresser by trade. He is Peter K. Sternad, head of the district trust office for Bank of America in San Rafael. The dress shop became his responsibility.

Trust Officers For Banks Are Jacks Of All Trades

Maybe you think a trust officer for a bank has nothing to do all day but sit behind a desk.

There was a trust officer in San Diego who ended up milking 60 cows for one week after the hired hands walked off a ranch in a dispute with the owner's widow.

He did such a fine job that his bank had him continue at it for another week.

Banks have taken over management of pizza parlors, race horses, pawn shops, newspapers, junkyards, television and radio stations, orange groves and turkey ranches.

And this is just a small sampling, according to Adri G. Boudwyn of the Bank of America's public relations office in San Francisco.

Take Peter K. Sternad, head of the district trust office for Bank of America in San Rafael. Neighbors of Sternad, who lives at 62 Mount Rainier Drive, Lucas Valley, would have been startled to see him in a San Rafael dress shop recently, adjusting the coiffure of a mannequin.

Sternad was not moonlighting on the bank. He was doing his job as a trust officer. The store, managed in trust by nis department, was in need of new appearance and Sternad pitched in as window dresser in the absence of fulltime management.

Bank of America once was entrusted with the estate of a race horse owner. Rather than sell the horses at once, the bank waited until all the mares foaled. This made the stable of horses more valuable and the estate received a higher price than would have been had in a quick sale.

However, it meant that a banker temporarily went into the race horse business, an uncommon calling for these men of caution.

While waiting for the sale, the bank hired a trainer to enter two horses in races. Those were days when several in the trust department kept a close eye on the races. Both horses won, by the way.

Often the job is more challenging. When Bank of America recently operated a Vallejo hospital under a trust, the trust officers had to handle two strikes, complete with picket lines and a power failure calling for operations by candlelight.

Trust officers have run mortuaries, managed tuna boats, handled rare coin and stamp collections, taken over an ant control business and even a salt mine in Nevada.

Perhaps the next thing you'll see on television will be a series starring that masterful and courageous jack of all trades—the trust officer.

Irate Tam Coach Blasts All-League Voting

By JIM GILMARTIN
I-J Sports Editor

Eddie Chavez, head basketball coach at Tamalpais High School, yesterday lashed out at his fellow Marin County Athletic League mentors for according Tam guard Larry Gray "only" honorable mention in the All-League squad selected Monday night.

"Larry Gray is by far the best guard in the league and to be given honorable mention in a lousy league is an insult to his talents," the irate Chavez told the Independent-Journal.

Chavez, a former Santa Clara star who has coached at Tam for six seasons, was the only head varsity coach in the league absent from Monday night's meeting when the all-star team was chosen. He charged, "I sincerely believe they (the other coaches) were trying to teach me a lesson for missing the meeting by leaving Larry off the first team. Honorable mention is ridiculous," he stormed. "The fact that I didn't attend the meeting is irrelevant; it's my own business and not important. The coaches should pick a true all-star team, but everyone (the coaches) wants to get his own boys some rewards. And just because I wasn't there a fine basketball player (Gray) missed out on some much deserved accolades. This, to me, is hypocritical."

Chavez added, "I don't think they were sincere in their all-star selections."

The Tam coach described the 5-foot-10 Gray, a senior, as "By far the best guard in the league and one of the best players in the league. Cal Riemcke (College of Marin coach) told me Larry is like a man among boys and that he could play for him (Riemcke) right now. He is one of the best two or three players I've coached at Tam in six years."

Chavez continued, "To score 22, 25 and 26 points a game against some pretty good teams like Larry did this year must mean he's a pretty good player. His scoring tailed off toward the end of the season but that was my fault. I wanted to use some players who were coming back next year and I told Larry what I was doing. He agreed that was the best for me to do, even though his personal scoring output suffered considerably."

Gray was the league's leading scoring with a 19-point per game average half-way through the 12-game league schedule, but he wound up in fifth place in individual scoring with a 13.8 per game average.

Chavez concluded by commenting, "All-star teams are supposed to be the best players in the league but the Marin coaches were definitely wrong in delegating the best guard in the league to honorable mention status."

Monday night's meeting for the all-star selections was conducted by league Commissioner George Corson. The head varsity coaches who voted for the squad were Dick Hart of Redwood, Carl Brown of Drake, George Starn of Terra Linda, Gus Hassapakis of Marin Catholic, John Panagakis of Novato and Mike Diaz of San Rafael.

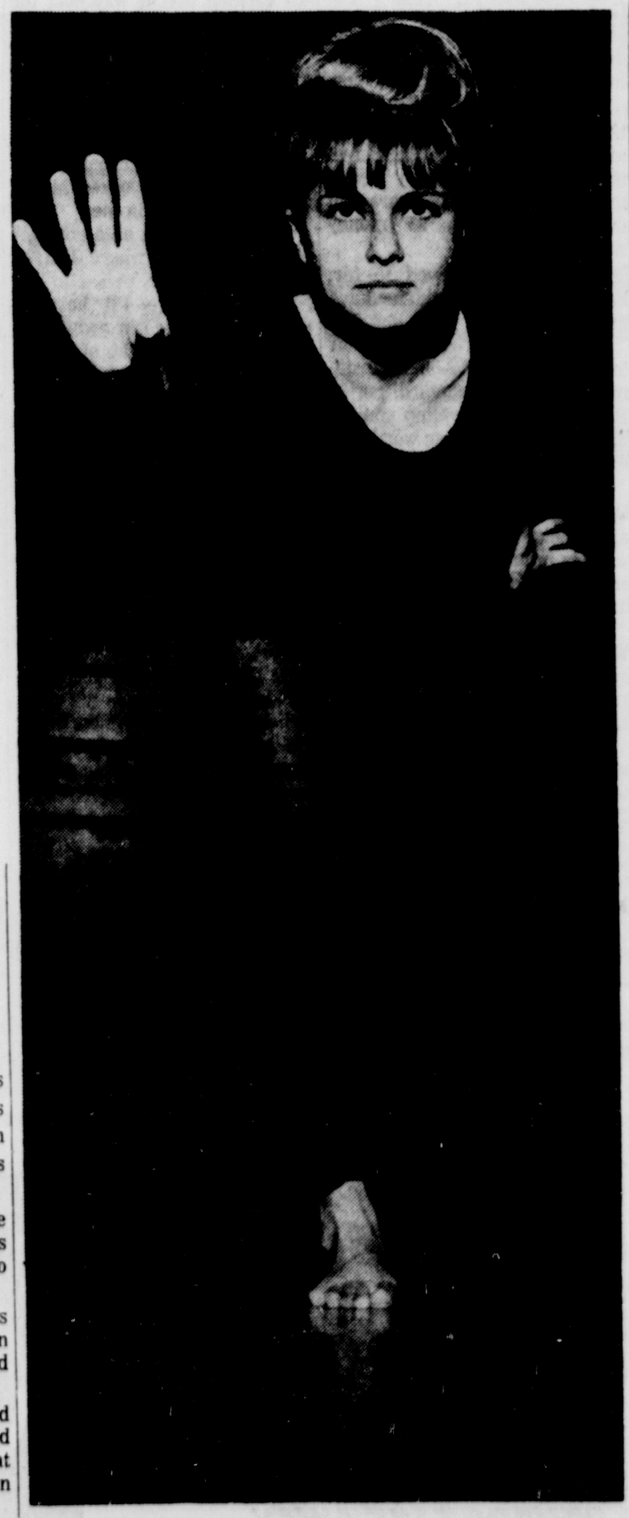
SOFT LANDING—Barbara Wagner of Novato High makes a graceful landing after vaulting over the horse during Saturday's Marin County girls' gymnastics meet.



FINE BALANCE—Sheryl Krause of Novato High School displays a fine bit of balance on one leg during balance beam competition at the Marin County meet. Gals who placed in this meet qualified for the Northern California finals March 13 in El Cerrito.

WORLDWIDE PROTESTS ROCK AUSTRALIAN SWIM OFFICIALS

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — —Worldwide protests against the expulsion of four Australian Olympic girl swimmers are said to have staggered Australian Swimming Union officials.

The Sydney Morning Herald, in reporting the reaction today, said: "There has been angry criticism of the controlling body within the ranks of the state branches."

It is being argued that the state branches could instruct their delegates to the federal body to revoke or review the expulsions. In view of the feeling aroused, it seemed probable the state bodies would take action to lighten the penalties.

Dawn Fraser, 27, the worlds' fastest female swimmer and winner of gold medals in three straight Olympics, was expelled from the ASU for 10 years. Linda McGill, 20, was banned for four years, and Nan Duncan, 17, and Marlene Dayman, 15, for three years each, all for alleged misbehavior at the 1964 Tokyo Games.

The charges against the girls have not been disclosed but it is known the four participated in the opening day ceremonies contrary to instructions.

Miss Fraser has admitted she wore a wrong swimsuit in races because the official one was too tight and uncomfortable.

During the Games, reports from Tokyo said Dawn swam in the palace moat and was chased by guards.

Lawyers have been engaged on behalf of Miss Fraser and Miss McGill to determine what legal action could be taken about the expulsions.

Miss McGill's lawyer, Carl Melvey, told reporters the ASU action was "illegal, invalid and in complete defiance of all the basic principles of law and justice."

Tar Nine Loses Opener In Tuneup For Tournament

In a final tuneup for this weekend's Marin J.C. baseball tournment, the Tars opened up their baseball slate with a 6-2 loss to Contra Costa yesterday in San Pablo.

The first tournament hosted by the Tars will be held Friday and Saturday at Albert Field in San Rafael. Opening round games Friday will find San Francisco City College vs. Napa at 4 p.m. and Marin vs. Diablo Valley at 8 p.m.

Losers of those two games will play Saturday at noon and the winners will play for the championship title at 4 p.m.

In yesterday's game, coach Ed Grimm was able to use his entire team to find out just what he's got. Jim Timmell, Jim Schmidt and Dave Perlis split the pitching chores for Marin. Perlis was charged with the loss.

Marin collected four hits, all singles. Art Garcia, Larry Gerughty, Dennis Gerughty and Joe Hebel each got one.

Juan Signs Giant Pact

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (AP) — The San Francisco Giants moved out today for their third spring training session with a few expected aches and pains and two men missing.

Among the casualties are third baseman Jim Ray Hart, with a blister on the ball of his right foot; second baseman Hal Lanier, a heel blister; newly signed Jesus Alou, a strained groin muscle, and rookie infielder Larry Edmonson, a black right eye caused by a bad hopping baseball.

Matty Alou, the other half of the outfielding brother team still hasn't signed, but is close to terms. Jesus autographed a contract yesterday for a reported $11,500.

Still far off, both financially and geographically, is Bob Shaw, the right-handed reliever tending his oranges in Jupiter, Fla. The Giants want to cut his contract almost the entire allowable 25 per cent because Shaw struggled to a 7-6 record last season after winning his first five games.

Shaw told Joe Reichler of The Associated Press yesterday that he'll take a cut only if new manager Herman Franks makes him a starter.

"Pitching in relief is very risky," contended the 32-year-old Shaw. "Very few (relievers) last more than a few years. There are exceptions, but usually a relief pitcher wears himself out in a hurry."

Happier by far than Shaw was ace right-handed starter Juan Marichal, who agreed to accept a reported $52,500 for 1965 — $12,500 more than his 1964 pact.

Marichal was 21-8 last season despite missing seven starts because of an aching back. He was 25-8 in 1963. The 26-year-old from the Dominican Republic has a lifetime record of 83-39.

"I'm happy with the contract," said Marichal. "But I have to win a lot of games for this kind of money."

Warriors Lose To Cincinnati

DETROIT (AP)—The current four-game National Basketball Association road trip is unimportant for the San Francisco Warriors, locked in the basement of the Western Division.

But to rookie Bud Koper, it could be the most important trip of his professional career. For it appears that the blond graduate of Oklahoma City University must produce quickly in the last 10 games of the season to stay on the roster.

Koper scored seven field goals in seven tries last night against Cincinnati and finished with 16 points. But the Royals won easily 121-105 as the Warriors dropped their 10th straight.

The 6-foot-6 Koper, known for his long-range accuracy, has had trouble getting his favorite shots off because of lack of speed. If he learns how to get his shots, Koper could justify his position as the Warriors' No. 2 draft choice. Otherwise, he could end up like No. 1 choice Barry Kramer, placed on waivers a few weeks ago.

All Is Not Spring At Wet, Cold Camps

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's annual spring fling is two days old and, so far, form is holding up in the far-flung training camps.

It rained in Florida yesterday. Arizona was frigid. Half a dozen players couldn't get out of Latin America. The big question seemed to be "Who's on first?" And one answer was:

"I'm not conceding him a thing. All I want is an equal opportunity. . ."

Frank Thomas issued the challenge to newcomer Dick Stuart at Philadelphia's Clearwater, Fla., base after extolling Stuart's virtues as a hitter and — despite his reputation — glove man.

Stuart, acquired from Boston in a winter deal, is an all-round fine fellow who will help the Phillies win the National League pennant this time out, said Thomas, but the big slugger was not going to take his job away without a fight.

Stuart, meanwhile, was busy trying to make peace with Dennis Bennett, the young pitcher whom the Phils sent to Boston in the trade. Bennett is unhappy about Stuart's remarks that the Red Sox were cheated in the deal and that he probably paid more income tax money last year than Bennett drew in salary.

"The whole thing has been magnified and distorted," Stu said. "A lot of what I said was said as a joke, but the writer took me seriously."

First base also was the focal point at Miami and Pompano Beach, Fla., where Baltimore and Washington, respectively, hold forth.

Big Boog Powell, who hit 39 home runs for the Orioles last year as an outfielder, worked at first base, where Manager Hank Bauer plans to give him an extensive trial. Senators' pilot Gil Hodges drilled four aspirants — Bob Chance, Roy Sievers, Dick Nen and incumbent Joe Cunningham — at the bag.

At Tucson, Ariz., Cleveland's Operation Switch sent Chuck Hinton, an outfielder with Washington in 1964, to second base. Coach Solly Hemus, in charge of Manager Birdie Tebbetts' plan to find spots for four outfielders in the starting line-up, called Hinton one of the American League's super stars.

"If he puts his mind to it, Chuck can play any position well," Hemus said. "Just like Willie Mays."

The Pittsburgh Pirates disclosed that NL batting champion Roberto Clemente is hospitalized with malaria in Puerto Rico and will be unavailable for at least three weeks.

Julian Javier, only unsigned St. Louis Cardinal, was reported enroute from Puerto Rico to the world champions' camp but Roberto Pena, rookie Chicago Cubs' shortstop, was grounded in the Dominican Republic because of visa difficulties and several other players from Central and South America had not been heard from.

A FLYING NORWEGIAN

"For a few seconds, you have a wonderful feeling of flying," says Arne Nossum, 21, University of Nevada skier from Norway, in describing jumping. Nossum has been setting records on jumping hills at Sierra, a crowded spot for skiers. (AP Wirephoto)

Nice Guys Machen, Terrell Will Fight For WBA Title

CHICAGO (AP) — Two nice guys, lanky Ernie Terrell and seasoned Eddie Machen, meet in comparative privacy for the World Boxing Associations version of the heavyweight title Friday night.

"This one has been my toughest to publicize," Ben Bentley, a veteran tub-thumper for some 35 title fights, conceded today.

"You couldn't get a tougher set of circumstances running against you in what could be a good fight, one that may help restore boxing to an acceptable level again," said ringwise Bentley.

"There's Cassius Clay accepted as heavyweight champion outside the WBA. There's the great comeback showing of Floyd Patterson against George Chuvalo. And then, the weekend before our fight, we got the Black Muslim convention and Clay monopolizing the Chicago press."

Bentley, publicity man for the erstwhile International Boxing Club, said the fact that neither the 6-foot-6 Terrell, a Chicagoan, nor the 32-year-old Machen, father of four from Redding, Calif., was a "character," in or out of the ring, also hindered dramatizing their 15-round bout at the International Amphitheatre.

"They're good boxers and nice guys — and where do you go from there in trying for a buildup like you give a mouthy guy like Clay or a real tough guy like Liston," said Bentley.

Terrell, ranked No. 1 by the WBA, has won his last 12 fights and owns a 36-4 record, including 18 knockouts. Machen, No. 3 in the WBA list, has a 47-5-2 record, including 29 knokcouts. However, Machen had a string of 11 straight unbeaten starts snapped in his last start by Patterson at Stockholm, Sweden, last July 5.

Co-promoters Irv Schoenwald and Joe Kellman still were hoping for slightly better than a gross gate of $60,000 in the 12,000-seat Amphitheatre, scaled for $102,000.

'No Managing Talk' Says Coach Al Dark

By MIKE RATHET

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — "I'm not thinking about the future and I'm not going to talk about managing," said Alvin Dark. "I'm a coach with the Cubs now — and my only interest is being the best coach possible."

Thus the former manager of the San Francisco Giants declared any discussion of his managerial future off limits yesterday after going through a four-hour workout on his first day as coach with the Chicago Cubs.

"There are no special problems for me," he said. "I'm just like a coach going from one club to another. He would have the same problems as me — learning the speed of ball players and things like that. Baseball is played the same here as anywhere else.

"At first, when I was fired, I thought about managing in the minors," he continued, "but some friends talked to me, and we decided that it was best for me to stay in the majors.

"So I called the Cubs, after I had heard they were looking for a coach. Bob Kennedy and I have known each other since 1941 when we were working out with the White Sox organization. I phoned him and asked him if he was interested in me.

"And here I am as a coach. I really don't see where I'm on any spot.

"Oh, I'm sure I'll have to catch myself once in awhile if I jump up in the heat of a ball game and start yelling like I did when I was managing, but otherwise I'm just going to do anything I'm asked to do and concentrate on coaching."

Dark had done just that after stepping out on the field at 1 a.m. in his blue Cub uniform, an unfamiliar No. 55 on his back and a Chicago brochure — which he thumbed through occasionally — tucked in his back pocket.

As Dark stood in right field, his arms folded across his chest while watching the Cubs throw the ball around, there was a murmur in the stands as people told each other, "That's Dark. Over there. No. 55."

When it was time for fielding practice, Dark parked himself to the side of first base, smacking hard grounders off a fungo bat to Ernie Banks, laughing and yelling, "Base hit," whenever a too-hot-to-handle grounder skimmed past the Cub first baseman.

Then there was a short talk behind the batting cage with head Coach Kennedy and Dark's first day was over.

Now he was sitting on the bench, reticent about talking about the past but still touching on what many feel was the main reason he was fired — a newspaper article quoting him on the attitudes of Negro and Latin American players on the Giants.

"I don't mind you asking about it," said Dark, "but that's all behind me. I'll probably be asked the same questions 1,000 times, but it doesn't bother me.

"That's the vicissitudes of life," and he laughed at the magnificence of the word.

'Big Three' In Pensacola Tournament

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player try for their first victories of the 1965 professional golfers tour starting today with the pro-am warmup for the $65,000 Pensacola Open.

They will meet for the first time this year in the pro-am and all need the practice. Neither of the Big Three has won a tournament this year. They are not even in the top 25 money winners.

Player hasn't played so far, but Palmer and Nicklaus have no excuses.

A field of 52 pros will tee off tomorrow in the 72-hole tournament over the 6,142-yard, par-72 Pensacola Country Club course. The pro-am today was worth $3,000 in cash and prizes.

Ken Venturi, last year's U.S. Open winner, rejoins the tour after being out since Jan. 28 with an inflammation of the arteries which caused a numbness in his hands.

"Don't expect any miracles," Venturi said. "I've got to build up strength in my hands. It will take me a week or two of good, hard work."

Last year, Player topped Palmer and Miller Barber in a playoff.

MURAKAMI WILL STAY IN JAPAN

TOKYO (UPI) — The Nankai Hawks professional baseball team has made a final decision to keep left-handed pitcher Masanori Murakami in Japan although U.S. baseball commissioner Ford Frick has ruled he is the San Francisco Giants property.

The Yomiuri newspaper reported today that president Shigeru Niiyama, managing director Tsuguhiro Iwase and team manager Kazundo Tsuruoka reached that decision at a meeting at Osaka yesterday.

Bill Bradley Named AP Player Of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Bradley, Princeton's two-time All-America, was named the college basketball player of the year by The Associated Press today.

The 6-foot-5 senior from Crystal City, Mo., who has led Princeton to three straight Ivy League titles while setting all-time Ivy records galore, won by a whopping 116-30 margin over Cazzie Russell of Michigan in voting by 216 sports writers and broadcasters.

Bradley and Russell also were one-two in the separate balloting for the 1965 All-America, announced by The AP yesterday. This balloting was much closer with Bradley getting 993 points on 197 firsts and four seconds. Russell tallied 1964 points on 186 firsts and 17 seconds.

Five points were given for a first team vote in the All-America voting and two points for a second team nod, while just single votes counted in the player of the year tally.

Named to the All-America first team, along with Bradley and Russell were Rick Barry, the nation's individual scoring champion from the Miami, Fla., Hurricanes; Gail Goodrich of UCLA's defending national champions; Fred Hetzel of Davidson and the late Wayne Estes of Utah State.

Estes was named to the All-America posthumously. He died Feb. 8 when he accidentally came in contact with a high voltage wire.

Rounding out the top 10 were Barry with seven votes; Goodrich and Estes five each, Clyde Lee of Vanderbilt, A.W. Davis of Tennessee and Dave Stallworth of Wichita, three each, and Skip Thoren of Illinois, two.

Henry Finkel of Dayton, Billy Cunningham of North Carolina, Willie Somerset of Duquesne, Flynn Robinson of Wyoming, Steve Vacendak of Duke and Oliver Darden of Michigan received one vote each.

Stallworth, a 1964 All-America who graduated at the end of January, Lee and Thoren were named to the second team this year along with Bill Buntin of Michigan, Dave Schellhase of Purdue and Vandy's Clyde Lee.

Davis and Cunningham made the third team along with Keith Erickson of UCLA, John Austin of Boston College and Jim Walker of Providence.

HANLEY

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. — John Henry Sauer is an uninhibited, frankly outspoken man. Since his active baseball career ended in 1959 after 23 major league campaigns, Sauer has been an ambassador of good will for the Giants whether on a scouting assignment or lending a hand in spring training camp.

But Sauer is at his best counseling rookies. "Hank has a way with the younger players," Horace Stoneham has said on many occasions. "He does a great job in the morale department."

THIS SPRING, however, Sauer hasn't encountered one morale problem among all of the Giants. "The biggest thing here is the attitude," said Sauer. "It's a happy camp. That's very important in keeping a team loose and, believe me, it takes a loose team to win."

Did he think the Giants would win the 1965 National League flag?

"Certainly I think we have a good shot at it but we have a big 'if problem.' That's shortstop. It was our biggest problem last year. Jose Pagan just wasn't picking up the ball last year. He knows it and so does everyone else. If he fields this year like he did in 1962, then I think we're in.

"WE)RE GOING to have to wait and see whether the winter operation on his eye corrected his vision. Jose says it has. I told him he has only one thing to worry about—fielding. If he does the job at short, it won't matter if he hits .220."

Sauer declared that Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda and Jim Ray Hart would take care of the hitting department.

"Ed Bailey is going to help, too, with pinch hits. Ed is a great guy to have around, not only for his bat. He's a needler but not an unkind one. He can loosen up a tight team with a laugh.

"As far as Hart is concerned, I never have doubted that he will be a truly great hitter—yes, right along with Mays and Cepeda. And Hart deserves more credit than he got for his fielding job at third last year. He did a good glove job there and he'll be vastly improved this year."

SAUER ACKNOWLEDGED that Giant pitching depth could not match the Dodgers "but remember we have the best right-hander in the business in Juan Marichal and Jack Sanford looks like he is going to be ready again after his arm operation."

Sauer had a particular word of praise for Hal Lanier and declared the young second baseman "gradually will take charge of the infield because he's that kind of player."

"Lanier naturally couldn't take charge as a rookie but you just watch him operate as a sophomore," said Sauer.

REDWOOD CAGE CHAMPS

Rags To Riches Story

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Redwood High School's cage team, with the championship title of the Marin Athletic League safely tucked away, today is looking ahead to a pair of postseason tournaments.

The Giants, champs of the Marin prep league, will be playing in the Gridley Invitational tomorrow, Friday and Saturday of this week. Tomorrow they open against Miramonte of Orinda at 6:30 p.m. Then comes the Hournament of Champions in Berkeley, March 11, 12 and 13.

Outclassing their opponents in the Marin League, the Giants of Redwood rolled up a 11-1 record, 4 games ahead of second place San Rafael and Drake who tied with 7-5 records. Redwood had the championship locked up before ever playing its final two league games.

Redwood's overall record this year is 16-9. The Giants got off to a bad start, posting a 4-win, 8-loss record in pre-league games. Then in its first MAL game of the season, Redwood was walloped by Drake, 53-35.

12 STRAIGHT

But then Redwood started to win, and hasn't stopped since. The Giants, since that Drake loss, have won 12 straight games, 11 of them in league play and the other against Petaluma.

Center Chuck Meyer (6-4), and guard Charlie Davis (5-9) were sidelined by injuries early in the season and missed six of Redwood's games. Both boys were first stringers and their absence was felt. But they got back in the lineup in time for league play. Meyer is the top rebounder on the team and Davis is termed by coach Dick Hart as "the quarterback of the squad, a real playmaker."

Top scorer for the Giants is 6-4 forward Tom Bly who averaged 14.1 points per game through the MAL slate. He and the other forward, 6-2 Don Detrick, were the only lettermen on the team. Detrick is also a big scorer for the team, averaging 10.5 points in league play. He is extremely effective under the boards with his short jumpers.

Outside shooting for the Redwood quint comes from six-foot guard Russ Smith. He's got a good eye on set shots from 20 or 25 feet out. He had a 10.3 league scoring average.

This group of Myere-Bly-Detrick-Davis-Smith was the starting unit for Redwood throughout the year. The two key reserves on the roster are Bruce McGee, a 6-1 junior, and Kevin Wilson, a 5-6 sophomore. McGee is used as the third forward and Wilson the No. 3 guard.

Hart says the turning point in the season for Redwood was that first league win, a 63-45 triumph over Terra Linda. The game before, Drake had easily handled Redwood. According to percentage figures, that Drake loss was the worst game of Redwood's basketball history. Nothing was going in the basket for Redwood which hit only 11 of 69 shots for 16 per cent.

"But then when we beat Terra Linda, the kids knew we could win. It gave them a lot of confidence," said Hart.

Bly, who is called a "silent leader" by Hart, made his buckets at a 48 per cent clip in league play, and made free throws at a 77 per cent rate. In addition, he's a good rebounder. "He's not a noisy kid," says Hart, "but he keeps the team together."

Balanced scoring is a feature of the Redwood attack, as each of the five starters led the team in scoring for at least one game on the league slate. The team had a 39 per cent shooting average from the floor, so roughly 2 out of every 5 shots found the mark.

Defensively, Redwood plays man-to-man. If the big scorer on the opposing team is a tall boy, Bly is handed the duty of guarding him but if the big shooter is a little guard, Davis gets the call.

There are no dummies on this Redwood quint, as evidenced by the team's grade point average of 3.24 (B-plus).

Hart tries to get his boys out to college basketball games to see how the "big boys" do it. He's rounded up the Giants team and made it to the Cal-Washington State game, the Cal Poly-San Francisco State game, USF-University of Pacific, and the UCLA-Cal game last Saturday. They even watched the Warriors once this year.

"We've got good spirit on this team," said Hart, "and we keep gaining confidence." With the rugged tournament games ahead, that's just what this team is going to need.

THE NEW MATH

'Real Numbers' Very Important

(EDITOR'S NOTE — We'll wager you didn't know there were such things as "real numbers" — no, there aren't any false numbers. But "real numbers" are a basic tool of the "new math" being taught to children throughout the nation. In the following third of five articles, 14-year-old Katie Mueller, now in her third year of the new math explains it all.

By KATIE MUELLER
(Third of a series)
Written for Associated Press

When I first heard the term "real number," I thought to myself, "I suppose next we'll have to learn what 'false numbers' are."

And then I learned there is no such thing in the new math as a false number. Wherever they got the term real number beats me!

Real numbers are very important in the world of the modern math. But they can be defined very simply: A real number is any number, whether it is positive, negative, or zero.

Of course, that definition won't help much if you don't understand what a positive or a negative number is. I'll try to explain it.

If Billy has four apples, he has a Positive number of apples, or plus four. If he gives these apples away to four friends, he will have no apples, or zero.

But let's suppose that a big bully comes along and demands that Billy give him an apple, too. Billy is now in the hole one apple. You might say he has a Negative 1 apple, or minus 1.

How Billy gets out of this mess doesn't matter. What does matter is the fact that Billy went from a plus 4 to a minus 1. This can best be illustrated by drawing a "number line," in which you think of all the real numbers being on a line, and every number corresponding to a point on the line.

By counting back 5 spaces from plus 4, you arrive at -1. Similarly, by subtracting 6 from plus 3, you get -3. In the same way, if you add 5 to —4, you get the sum of plus 1. But if you add only 2 to —4, you still have a negative number, —2.

That shows you how you add and subtract with plus and minus numbers. Multiplication and division of real numbers is not hard, either. You just multiply and divide as you normally would.

The following rules must be kept in mind, however:

1. A Negative number multiplied by a Positive number always produces a negative number. For example, —4 times 2 equals —8.

2. A Negative number divided by a Positive number, or a Positive number divided by a Negative number, always produces a Negative number. For example, —4 divided by 2 equals —2, and 4 divided by —2 equals —2.

3. A Negative number multiplied by a Negative number always produces a Positive number. For example, —2 times —2 equal 4.

4. A Negative number divided by a Negative number always produces a Positive number. For example: —4 divided by —2 equals 2.

And, of course, we know that a Positive number multiplied or divided by another Positive number always produces a Positive number. That's just 2 times 2 equals 4.

It wouldn't be fair to just give you these facts without trying to explain WHY these are facts. You may recall earlier in this series I said the importance of the new math is that it teaches the "why" as well as the "how."

In the next article, we'll take up the "pump theory" which has been developed to clear up the mystery of multiplying and dividing with plus and minus numbers.

Meanwhile, would you please do me a favor. Please tell me you understand perfectly all this stuff about real numbers!

Next: The "pump theory."

Trees And Dogs On Larkspur Agenda

Trees and dogs will be before the Larkspur City Council for action tonight. The council meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. at the city hall.

The much-studied tree ordinance, having been revised several times, will be before the council with a parks and recreation commission recommendation for passage. The measure would control both planting and cutting of street trees and allow removal of hazardous trees on private land.

The question of dogs, cats, pigeons and horses is buried in a series of proposed amendments to the city zoning ordinance, set for a public hearing at the top of the agenda.

During discussion at planning commission level, the changes drawing the most discussion dealt with the size and number of parking spaces to be required in various parts of the city.

But the ordinance, as now proposed, also includes restrictions on the number and kind of pets which may be kept in residential areas. The amendment would allow a homeowner to keep two dogs or two cats or both, but not three dogs and one cat, for instance.

City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper said yesterday he has already heard complaints from residents with four dogs.

The change would also completely prohibit raising of fowl outdoors, including homing pigeons sometimes raised and raced as a hobby.

As for horses, a minimum lot size of an acre would be required in any residential zone before a horse were allowed.

Final adoption is expected of an ordinance establishing fire zones, and the council will consider a new ordinance regulating taxi service.

The council will also consider appointing a replacement for the retiring Andrew Gilardi on the planning commission, and receive a commission report on a survey of Bay Area cities on policies on variances for height of buildings.

Top-Rank English Students Nominated

Nominees for the awards are Paula Jacobson, Russ Richeda, Peter Stone, Mary Caron, Larry Hardin, Bert Smith, Sandee Schultz, Carolyn De Fay, Eve McArdell and Susan Williams.

Western Weekend To Change

Several changes in plans for Novato's Western Weekend Celebration on June 16 to 20 were announced today by Roger Hillman, Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce Western Weekend chairman.

Locations of carnival grounds and parade route have both been changed.

The carnival will be at Novato Boulevard and Diablo Avenue for the 10th annual Western Weekend celebration. The former location, the Patterson Ranch at Grant Avenue and Seventh Street, is soon to be developed into a shopping center.

The parade this year, to avoid crossing Highway 101, will form at Grant and Virginia avenues. It will go down Grant Avenue to First Street and disperse at First and Vallejo Avenue.

Hillman announced the following chairmen: Paul Dock, parade; Joseph L. Ladely, grounds; Robert Oddone, carnival grounds and concessions; Daniel P. Donovan, rodeo concessions; Jose Reilly, beef raffle; Carl Jensen, cross-country race; Gerald A. Ellenberger, donkey race; Harry Moore, special events; Mrs. Lawrence P. O'Brien and Mrs. John W. Gilmore, queen contest; Charles L. McNulty and David G. Douglass, publicity.

HIGH AND REGAL Queen Guinevere Cake, savory hot King Crab Legs Newburg and platter snacks with sour cream dip make unusual and delicious party refreshments. Impressive to serve and easy to prepare.

A King Of An Entree—A Queen Of A Cake

Now some may remark that in the days when knights were bold, knights and their ladies couldn't possibly have had frozen Alaska King crab and high proud cake fruited with California prunes. Never mind . . . they would have if they could have. And would doubtless have been merrily willing to trade a dukedom any day for such delights.

ONE THING certain, the "knights" at your party will greet these refreshments with gusto and enthusiasm. For Alaska King crab is man food. So are California prunes. Both are substantial, have real flavor, and look familiar . . . qualities that rate with men. The Ladies Fair, in turn, will appreciate the low calorie deliciousness of the crab meat and the sheer luxury of the queenly cake.

ALASKA KING crab is born tender. Within minutes of leaving the cold ocean depths, it is cooked to perfection and the freezing is fast . . . to preserve the tender fresh succulence. Only the legs and claws are chosen and the pink and white chunks of meat are ready to use as soon as thawed. They have a sweet delicate flavor, distinctive and characteristic, that lends itself to festive fare.

HERE, FROZEN Alaska King crab and California prunes present party food that's dramatic and gourmet, that's handsome and fun. And with it all, easy to prepare.

King Crab Legs Newburg is piled high in the shells. Tender pieces of crab are mixed through a savory cream sauce that's snapped with dry mustard and dashed with sherry.

KING CRAB LEGS NEWBURG

- 2 12-ounce packages frozen Alaska King crab legs
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons flour
- ¼ teaspoon dry mustard
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- Sprinkle of white pepper
- 1 cup light cream
- 1 egg yolk
- 3 tablespoons dry sherry
- 2 slices firm bread—optional
- Butter—optional

Defrost crab legs by following package instructions. Remove King crab meat from shell; remove long tendons. Reserve all shell pieces which can be refilled—long leg pieces, joint and claw pieces. Cut meat into 1 inch pieces. Set aside to drain well.

Melt butter or margarine and stir in flour, dry mustard, salt and pepper. Gradually stir in cream. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until smooth and thickened. Beat egg yolk with dry sherry. Beat hot sauce into egg mixture. Return to heat and stir in King crab. When mixture is hot spoon into the King crab shells. If desired, cut 2 slices of bread into tiny cubes and sprinkle over the top of the filled shells. Dot top with butter. Put under broiler and broil until top is brown and bubbly. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Towering majestically is a high-crowned beauty — Queen Guinevere Cake. Under a deep swirl of lemon buttercream frosting the cake is dark, moist and gemmed with chopped prunes and nuts.

QUEEN GUINEVERE CAKE

- 3¾ cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1½ teaspoons baking soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¾ cups vegetable shortening
- 2¼ cups granulated sugar
- 4 large eggs
- 1½ cups milk
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup chopped nuts
- 2 cups cooked chopped prunes

Frosting and Crown:

- 2 packages vanilla buttercream frosting mix*
- Lemon juice
- Yellow food coloring
- Plumped pitted prunes
- 14 tea biscuits, 1½"x1¼" (for crown)

Sift flour with baking powder, baking soda and salt. Cream shortening until light and fluffy. Gradually beat in sugar. Beat in eggs one at a time. Add dry ingredients alternately with the combined milk and vinegar, beginning and ending with the dry ingredients. Fold in vanilla, nuts and prunes. Pour mixture into 3 greased and floured 9-inch layer cake pans. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 30 to 35 minutes or until top springs back when lightly touched. Remove from pans and cool on a rack.

Prepare vanilla buttercream frosting mix according to package directions using lemon juice in place of half of the water required. Tint with yellow food coloring until bright yellow in color. Spread frosting between the layers and over the top and sides of the cake, reserving about 1 cup of the frosting for the crown. Arrange plumped prunes around the top edge of the cake. To make crown: With a sharp knife cut the opposite corners of each tea biscuit shaping a point. Cover the front and back of each cookie with reserved frosting. Place in a circle on top of the cake. Makes 1 3-layer cake.

KING CRAB LANCELOT

(Three favorites join forces—King crab, noodles and cheese. Result—a winner!)

- 2 6-ounce packages frozen Alaska King crab meat
- 1½ cups butter or margarine
- 1 pound fettucine or medium noodles
- 2 cups freshly grated Parmesan cheese
- Salt
- Freshly ground black pepper

Defrost King crab according to directions on package only until pieces of meat are easily separated. Saute King crab chunks in hot butter or margarine until completely thawed. Cook noodles according to directions on package and rinse with boiling water. Pour hot noodles into a large bowl. Add King crab and butter or margarine. Add Parmesan cheese and toss noodles until well blended. Season to taste with salt and freshly ground black pepper. Serve immediately. Makes 6 servings.

Platter Snacks will almost steal the show . . . stuffed green olives, pitted* whole prunes, solid little chunks of King Crab meat and triangles of orange . . . to be speared on toothpicks and dunked in this—

SOUR CREAM DIP

- 2 cups dairy sour cream
- 2 tablespoons bottled Italian salad dressing
- 1 tablespoon prepared horseradish
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine all ingredients and blend well. Chill until ready to serve. Serve with Alaska King crab chunks, plumped California prunes and orange triangles speared on toothpicks for dunking. Makes about 2¼ cups.

LADY FAIR PRUNE PETITS FOURS

- 3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups granulated sugar
- 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
- ⅔ cup vegetable shortening
- 1½ cups dairy sour cream
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 4 eggs
- 1½ cups cooked chopped prunes
- 1 cup chopped nuts Fondant Frosting* Plumped pitted prunes

Sift flour with baking powder, baking soda, salt and sugar. Stir in orange rind. Add shortening, sour cream, vanilla and eggs. Beat until smooth and well blended. Fold in prunes and nuts. Pour mixture into a greased and floured 13"x9"x2" pan. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 1 hour or until top springs back when lightly touched. Remove from pan and cool cake on a rack.

Cut cake into 1 inch slices and cut each slice into petits fours shapes — triangles, fingers, squares. Put pieces on a rack and spoon frosting over each piece covering it completely. Keep frosting warm over hot water. After petits fours are covered collect the dripping and add them to the frosting and reuse. If frosting becomes too thick add a few drops of warm water. Decorate the tops of the petis fours with plumped pitted prunes or put prunes on top of petits fours before spooning frosting over cake. Makes about 4 or 5 dozen depending on the size of the petits fours.

FONDANT FROSTING

- 1½ cups granulated sugar
- ½ cup water
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- 1½ tablespoons light corn syrup
- 6½ cups sifted confectioners sugar
- 1 teaspoon lemon extract
- Vegetable coloring

In saucepan combine sugar, water, lemon juice and corn syrup. Cook over low heat until syrup clears and just begins to boil. Remove from heat and stir in confectioners sugar and lemon extract. Tint the frosting to the desired color with vegetable coloring. Keep frosting warm over hot water and stir occasionally while frosting cakes.

PRINCELY HOT PRUNE KABOBS

(Husky and filling, handsome and fruity . . . everyone will go for 'em)

- 32 plumped* prunes
- 2 large navel oranges
- 16 cubes mild cheddar cheese
- 16 pineapple chunks
- 8 slices boiled ham (4x4 inches), cut into halves
- 8 strips bacon, cut into halves
- ½ cup butter or margarine, melted
- ½ cup honey
- ¼ cup lemon or lime juice
- ¼ cup catsup

Remove pits from prunes leaving prunes in one piece. Cut oranges into 8 wedges and cut each wedge into halves. Wrap cheddar cheese and pineapple in pieces of ham. Wrap bacon around the ham. On each skewer put 2 prunes, 2 orange wedges, 1 bacon wrapped bundle. Put filled skewers under a broiler about 6 inches from the source of heat. Combine remaining ingredients and use mixture to brush the kabobs several times during broiling. Turn kabobs after 5 minutes and broil and additional 5 minutes or until bacon is crisp. Makes 8 servings of 2 kabobs each.

*To "plump" prunes, cover with cold water—1 quart water to 1 pound prunes—and soak overnight.

KING CRAB KEDGEREE

- 2 6-ounce packages frozen Alaska King crab meat
- 6 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 cup long grain rice, cooked and drained
- 3 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
- ½ cup light cream
- Salt
- Cayenne pepper
- Chopped parsley

Defrost King crab according to directions on package only until meat can be separated into chunks. Saute King crab chunks in hot butter or margarine until completely thawed. Stir in cooked rice, eggs, and light cream. Season to taste with salt and cayenne. Reheat until piping hot. Sprinkle with chopped parsley. Serve immediately. Makes 6 servings.

Sole Styled Just The Diet Conscious

During Lent many of us give up little luxuries and extras as part of the tradition of sacrificing something we like. Lent is also an ideal time for going on a diet. You can accomplish two purposes: giving up the fattening, rich foods you enjoy and losing weight to look nice in your spring clothes.

Despite the widely publicized crash diets, eating well-balanced, varied meals and counting calories is still the best way to lose weight. Nutritionists emphasize the importance of making sure you eat the proper amounts of vitamins, minerals and proteins every day.

FILLET OF SOLE WITH MUSHROOMS

- 1 pound frozen fillet of sole, thawed
- 1 can (3 ounces) sliced mushrooms, or ¼ pound fresh mushrooms
- 3 tablespoons ReaLemon bottled lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon water
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper

Dry fillet of sole with paper toweling. Place fillets in greased 2-½-quart shallow baking dish. If using fresh mushrooms, slice lengthwise and lightly brown in a small amount of butter. Top fillets with mushrooms. Mix bottled lemon juice, water, parsley, dry mustard, salt and pepper. Pour over fillets and mushrooms. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 20 to 25 minutes, or until fish flakes. 4 servings.

Note: Other lean fish fillets may be substituted for sole such as halibut, haddock and cod.

Italian Style Fish Sticks Finest Source Of Protein

As Fish 'n Seafood Time rolls 'round again we are reminded that fishery products are among nature's finest sources of protein in what nutritionists call the "biologically complete" form. This means that protein in foods from the sea contains all the amino acids which are necessary to maintain health and support growth. In honor of Fish 'n Seafood Time, the National Fisheries Institute gives us this new recipe for one of America's most popular seafoods, frozen breaded fish sticks.

ITALIAN HOME-STYLE FISH STICKS

- 2 packages frozen breaded fish sticks
- 6 tablespoons butter or margarine
- ¼ cup olive oil
- 1 large onion, cut in rings
- 1 clove garlic, halved
- 2 4-ounce can sliced mushrooms
- ½ cup chopped celery
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup hot water
- ¼ teaspoon oregano
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper

Combine butter and olive oil in skillet. Add onions, garlic, mushrooms and celery, and saute about 7 minutes or until almost tender. Sprinkle in flour and mix. Add remaining ingredients, except fish sticks, and mix well. Cook over low heat 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove garlic. Cover bottom of ovenproof dish with mixture. Arrange fish sticks on top and bake, uncovered, at 450 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

New School Secrecy Bills Could Open Floodgates

A couple of assemblymen have introduced bills that could open the floodgates to closed meetings among school boards.

AB 768, by Jack T. Casey of Bakersfield and Houston I. Flournoy of Claremont, would permit school boards to consider in private "intra-school problems."

The bill defines "intra-school problems" as "a dispute or conflict among members of the administration or faculty . . . not involving professional competency."

Under that definition, any difference of opinion in any field not involving professional competency could be construed as a conflict or dispute among or between the administration or faculty.

Both Assemblymen Casey and Flournoy are college educators. They may sincerely believe that extension of closed meetings would improve school administration.

We believe they are dead wrong.

They, in effect, are saying: "Okay, fellas. If you are 100 per cent in agreement, you can discuss it in the open. If members of the faculty or administration have any differences of opinion, let's thrash it out in the back room first."

Take the second bill. AB 654 (Casey) would permit closed meetings to "evaluate" the district superintendent of schools.

Since existing law already permits closed sessions to hire or fire public officials or to hear charges or complaints against them, this new measure seeks to extend the closed meeting privilege beyond that.

How much beyond depends on the interpretation of the word "evaluate." Considering a salary raise for the superintendent could be construed as "evaluating" him.

School board members could lock themselves in with the superintendent to discuss a variety of school problems, on the pretext that they were merely "evaluating" the superintendent — evaluating his reactions to the various problems.

It was less than three years ago that the Novato school board went through a series of executive sessions to discuss the school superintendent and wound up with a refusal to renew the superintendent's contract in 1962.

The public uproar that accompanied those closed sessions are still vivid in the minds of those who followed the controversy.

Earl G. Marshall, who was then chairman of the school board, came out with some significant observations when he retired from the board in June of 1963:

"The executive session was more a means of avoiding responsibility and embarrassment than was necessary . . .

". . . All too often the executive session develops data which is later used to support a public action of the agency. But the public is denied access to the data thus developed where the action is perhaps unpleasant or unpopular.

Provisions for closed meetings are already spelled out in existing laws (to hire or fire, hear charges, or in matters relating to disciplining a student).

Adding such language as "evaluating the superintendent" or closed meetings on "intra-school problems" would only open the floodgates for secrecy in government.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

State Doesn't Practice What It Preaches To Businessmen

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — In a private business, outgo of funds is geared to income. That is, if the private business customarily bills its customers once a month, it pays its own bills once a month. If anything is left over, it might be considered profit, or it might go into a sinking fund which could be used to tide the business over in a slow month.

THIS IS NOT SO with state government, which always has had a good many practices under way which differ from the normal activities of private business.

One of these practices is the procedure of paying state employees once monthly while, on the other hand, the state enforces a law which requires private enterprise to pay at least twice every month.

Another practice in which the state engages is annual collection of tax instead of monthly collection, and at the same time, it fails to maintain an emergency fund large enough to cover the costs of government operation prior to the annual payments.

THIS IS HIGHLIGHTED by the recent "borrowing" of $50 million by the state's general fund from some of the trust funds which contain state money but are earmarked for special purposes.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown says this borrowing only emphasizes the need for a pay-as-you-go income tax collection method, in other words, the state withholding tax he has been attempting to foist on the public for several years. The system might help the Brown financial picture out for a short period of time, but it would prove no permanent solution to the problem.

Assemblyman Robert Monagan of Tracy, the Republican minority leader in the lower house, said Governor Brown has "well earned his title as the greatest spendthrift governor in our history."

OF COURSE, Brown has had plenty of rivals for the title, but he can qualify as the spendthrift who has dispensed the greatest amount of taxes simply because there is more money to spend.

"This borrowing," said Monagan, is a case of the governor's failure to accept responsibility for the bankrupt condition in which he has placed the state.

"The payment of income taxes before they are earned would give Governor Brown the unlicensed right to bleed the taxpayers of the state to death before they realize it."

AS TAXPAYERS slowly bleed to death in California, and money earned by producers is taken by a liberal government to give away to the parasites, Governor Brown finds there isn't enough money to meet his extensive spending program, so he proposes to the Legislature that taxes be increased.

At the same time, he caustically criticizes the legislative analyst's report to the effect that some $125 million can be saved taxpayers through effectuation of virtually minor economies and a few policy changes wiping out some of Brown's useless state agencies.

Novato Policemen Doing Fine Job

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Due to the fact that this accident took place at Grant Avenue and Highway 101 in Novato, a police car from the Novato Police Department arrived almost immediately. . . .

Officers Fitzgerald and Sanson of the Novato Police Department did such an outstanding job . . . that words cannot adequately express our admiration and thanks.

While I do not know either Officers Fitzgerald or Sanson, may we take this means of saying "for your efficiency, thoughtfulness and compassion, you both are a credit to all personnel connected with the Novato Police."

Carpenters Know Real Subversion

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Many times I've read letters in your paper which ask when America is going to wake up to the threat of communism and subversion in this country, and do something about it. The writers of these letters are great complainers and suggesters, but poor actors.

And then Saturday I read with pride and humiliation about a group of carpenters who went to Mississippi to rebuild bombed-out churches. Among these men were Quakers, Mennonites, political independents, and two I know are Democrats, but all were dedicated men of action. They know that bombing churches is subversion and anti-American, and they did something about it.

Can anyone tell me how many John Birchers or far-right Republicans went down there to devote their time and talents to help fellow Americans repair damage caused by bomb-throwing anti-Americans? Who displayed the best loyalty to their country? Or should the Birchers be excused for being too busy looking under door mats for Communists?

Red Cross Reminds Of Its Services

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As you no doubt know, March has again this year been designated as Red Cross Month throughout the nation. Although locally we do not run a big public campaign for funds as we are members of the United Bay Area Crusade, we do like to use this time to bring to the attention of people the services which the Red Cross provides.

This year when the Red Cross is so involved in the rehabilitation program following the Christmas Week floods, there is special interest for Northern Californians in this project. All aid given as emergency relief and as long-run rehabilitation by Red Cross is, of course, an outright gift by the American people. . . .

Annie, Oh Annie, Where Are You?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In the current reshuffling of the comic page, may I add a note of thanks over the return of "The Ryatts" and another of regret over the disappearance of "Orphan Annie." Why "Annie"? Why not delete "The Family Circus," a pointless cartoon that presents a dubious parental philosophy and children of subnormal intelligence with any latent endearing qualities obscured by a style of presentation so crude as to be embarrassing—all on a scale so large, mechanically, that you almost feel a physical impact when you come to that page in the paper? "McGurk's" aside (one cannot judge on such a brief acquaintance), will nothing deliver us from "The Family Circus"?

How can you tolerate it on the same page with such a truly inspired strip as "Pogo"—granted that the latter makes no pretense of being a children's comic!

Viet Policy Support Comes From GOP

Editor, Independent-Journal:

William S. White . . . recently wrote, ". . . the efforts of a Democratic president, Lyndon Johnson, to hold fast in Viet Nam to a policy of strength and resolution are being undercut most of all by fellow Democrats and supported most of all by his ostensible opposition, the Republicans."

Mr. White mentioned five Democratic senators (all liberals) who he says are talking a "wistful sort of nonsense" when they call for immediate negotiations with the Viet Cong. He might also have mentioned the very liberal San Francisco Assemblymen, Burton and Brown, who participated in a protest demonstration organized by the DuBois Club, a Marxist youth group with ties to the Communist Party, a demonstration in which the American flag at the federal building was replaced with the Viet Cong flag.

The point which Mr. White touches, but does not explore, is one which has escaped, or been deliberately ignored, by practically all of the political pundits. The point is that the "liberals" and the "conservatives" have, in the last decade, exchanged positions in regard to foreign affairs. The isolationists of today are not the conservatives, but the liberals. To read the latest columns of Walter Lippman, that oracle of contemporary liberalism, is to regress 50 years to the "fortress America" concept. The staunchest supporters of President Johnson's recent decisions on Viet Nam are the conservative Republicans. . . .

For many years I have tried to define the foreign policy advocated by the liberals. A parody of a famous Churchill quotation which recently appeared in National Review best describes my understanding of their policy. It is, "In War—Vacillation, in Peace—Disarmament, in Defeat—Complaisance, in Victory—Capitulation."

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

GENERAL JIMMY DOOLITTLE cherishes an ancedote concerning a parachute jumper whose equipment failed at a crucial moment, landing the chutist head-first in a swamp. He was rushed to an emergency ward and swathed in bandages from heat to foot, with only a tiny opening left for his right eye.

Two hours later the head surgeon dropped in to look him over. "Hey, Doc," murmured the chutist. "How'm I doing?" The surgeon shook his head gloomily and answered, "Frankly, son, that right eye doesn't look too good to me."

JOE GARAGIOLA, once a star major ball player, now an equally proficient banquet speaker, tells of a day he was ejected from the park for making what he insists was an innocent observation to Umpire "Beans" Reardon. A foul ball was hit into the stands in the seventh inning and knocked a lady cold. As she was being carried off in a stretcher, the Ump inquired, "Did that foul ball conk her?" "No sir," answered Garagiola respectfully. "You called that last pitch right — and she fainted."

"I SEE YOU'RE driving a new car," said a friend to the town's leading insurance salesman. "So I am," agreed the insurance wizard ruefully. "I tried to sell a policy to an automobile salesman."

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Johnson Shuns Course Of Timid In Viet Nam Victory Strategy

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson's policy in Viet Nam is increasingly clear:

The president is rejecting dangerous, meaningless, let's-get-out negotiations with an aggressor who has no intention of negotiating anything other than our withdrawal.

HE IS STEPPING up our defense of South Viet Nam. (The American-manned jet bomber strikes against the Viet Cong are a good example.)

He is not going to get out of Viet Nam until the aggression is defeated and the Communists cease and desist.

These are the policies that guide the president. There is solid reason to say that Mr. Johnson is confident that they will bear fruit.

One thing is sure. The White House is not going to get trapped into a kind of negotiation which, at this point, could have no other end than a U. S. capitulation and a Communist take-over.

The president does not hold with those who, as an excuse to justify their own timidity, use the false argument that the South Vietnamese soldiers won't fight. He is convinced that they are fighting with courage and daring and dedication. This is why he is approving a larger and more positive role for the American forces as proof that our will to win matches theirs.

WON'T FIGHT? Won't engage the Viet Cong if it means losses? The fact is that during the past three years the South Vietnamese have inflicted punishment on the Viet Cong more than 3-to-1, as Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., pointed out in his magnificent speech last week. During this three-year span 17,000 South Vietnamese soldiers have died in the defense of their country. The Viet Cong lost 59,000.

As the Viet Cong units are being depleted, North Viet Nam is being forced to send in additional men in larger numbers. This means that more of the fighting has to be borne by the North Vietnamese and that the war casualties are beginning to be felt by Hanoi.

THE PRICE which North Viet Nam is having to pay for its aggression is apparently not yet sufficient to produce second thoughts in Hanoi. President Johnson expects to make it sufficient.

I am convinced that Mr. Johnson can count on decisive support from the Congress and from the country in pursuing a steady, no-yield purpose in his determination to protect South Viet Nam—and the rest of Southeast Asia—from Communist take-over.

The let's-negotiate-to-get-out counsel does not reflect anything like majority opinion in Congress. As the issues are becoming clearer, the president's supporters in both the Senate and the House—Democrats and Republicans — are making their voices heard.

ONLY WEAKNESS and retreat could seriously divide the nation. Weakness and retreat are not natural for Lyndon Johnson. If there be political peril for the president, it would come from doing too little, not from doing too much.

I do not believe that our part in defending Viet Nam will ever become known as "Johnson's war." If he should fall into the trap of false negotiation, it could become "Johnson's appeasement." But the president has no appeasement in mind—and none in his make-up.

LBJ Faces Troubles On Immigration Bill

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The House Immigration Subcommittee is investigating a "sleeper" in President Lyndon B. Johnson's immigration program that would virtually make Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach immigration czar.

Known as "Section 13," the provision gives Katzenbach sweeping power to set his own rules and regulations in granting visas to immigrants seeking to enter the U. S., including refugees from the Middle East and behind the Iron Curtain.

Headed by Rep. Michael Feighan, D-Ohio, the congressional probers have gathered evidence indicating that "Section 13" will open the door to a flood of immigrants from Algeria, where Soviet agents have infiltrated the 70,000-refugee-escapees from other Arab and Soviet bloc countries.

SO FAR, THE legislators have been unable to obtain first-hand information on the "sleeper" from the attorney general.

Of special concern to the committee, according to Feighan, are the Immigration Service's figures disclosing that 765 refugees recently admitted to the U. S. came from Rumania, and 522 from Yugoslavia.

Since an international Communist passport "shakedown" racket is operating in these countries, Feighan wants to determine from Katzenbach how many of the refugees were forced to "buy" their way out.

The Senate Armed Services Committee, which is looking into the project's soaring costs, is zeroing in on a new line of inquiry into the TFX contract.

The committee has asked the White House for details on a report prepared by a presidential panel contending the plane should be completely redesigned.

According to the committee's staff investigators, four of the TFX's six tests have been failures. While the radically designed plane managed to get into the air and back to the ground in each test, that is about all it was able to do.

One test pilot reported that the TFX requires "nearly half the State of Texas just to turn around."

ORIGINALLY DUE to cost $6 billion, the project is now being estimated at more than $7 billion.

The TFX contract became a major public controversy in 1963 when Air Force and Navy officers informed the Senate investigating subcommittee they disagreed with Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's decisions to buy a joint plane rather than a separate one for each service, and to use the design submitted by General Dynamics Corp. rather than that of the Boeing Aircraft Co.

In its latest review of the experimental TFX, the Navy has warned McNamara that the plane is too heavy to land on carriers.

Designed to fly at speeds nearly twice that of sound, the TFX has not been able to exceed 350 mph — or approximately the speed of World War II fighters.

Frank Lloyd Wright Stone Walls May A Prison Make

IF AND WHEN the hall of justice wing is built on the Civic Center, Marin County will probably be the only place in the country that can claim a Frank Lloyd Wright jail.

Stone walls do not a prison make.

IF MILL VALLEY has really adopted a policy of annexation, as Mayor Michael E. Wornum says, it seems that the city is missing some opportunities. There are all the water district lands, Tamalpais Valley, Tennessee Valley and much other contiguous territory that has not been even asked to join the party.

If the city really is on an annexation kick, it should go all the way to Muir Beach and take in part of the Pacific. That would please Alto residents who have already told Mill Valley to go jump in the ocean.

BIGOTRY AND rocketry seem to have something in common in this modern world. You've heard of anti-missile-missiles. Overheard the other day of an anti-bigot-bigot. This must be a fellow who does not like the fellow who does not like bigots. Next step will be the anti-bigot-bigot-bigot.

SPEAKING OF rocketeering, it appears through the evidence collected by Ranger 8, that the moon would provide about the toughest 18-hole course you can imagine. It's just one big sand trap, pretty rough sand at that.

Of course, if you ever connect, that ball will really take off; very little gravity, you know.

WHO'S GOING TO annex the moon, by the way?

It seems that we are woefully unprepared for space in terms of law. There are no precedents to follow at all. How are such things as annexation of satellites to be handled?

SPACE LAW is in just about the same straits as education law. There are very few precedents in education law also, and a lawyer wanting to impress the court with his research into past judgments finds that he can make few if any case citations.

Marin County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, who advises school boards throughout the county on the law, explained the other day that the state education code itself is wanting in terms of research.

"Every time you think you have learned the code, the Legislature changes it," Maloney complained.

DEBATE MAY GROW over the name for the new San Rafael school planned on Canal Street. Those who want the school named after a person have suggested John F. Kennedy, the late president; Walter R. Castro, the late county supervisor; and Martha Smith, last assistant superintendent in the county schools office.

Another faction has suggested that the school be named to identify its area, but there has only been one suggestion here. That's "Acequia," which means canal in Spanish.

For The Latest In Subversion, Try A Business Junket Abroad

WASHINGTON — The State Department has told its passport offices around the country to do nothing that might in any way encourage Americans to travel abroad while the nation suffers from a gold drain. The offices were also told to take down any posters or other displays that might encourage foreign travel.—A. P. story.

THE SCENE IS a passport office in New York City. A man comes to the desk and says to the woman behind the counter, "I'm a tourist. I need a passport."

The woman says, "What did you want the passport for?"

"I want to cash a travellers check at Macy's. What do you think I want a passport for?"

"Were you planning to use it to go abroad?"

"No, I wanted it to paste my green stamps in. Sure, I want to go abroad!"

"WE CAN'T STOP you from getting a passport. All we can do is warn you about the cholera epidemic and let you make your own decision."

"I'm sorry, I can't give out any tourist information. Please fill this out. I presume you have riot insurance?"

"No, I don't have riot insurance. What do I need riot insurance for?"

"VERY WELL, let me have the names of your next of kin."

The man gives her the information.

The woman says, "You understand, of course, this passport can protect you only in countries where we have diplomatic relations. It doesn't cover you for floods, hurricanes, or tornadoes."

"WE'RE ASKING all Americans to think about them."

"I was going to Switzerland."

"During the avalanche season?"

"Oh, for crying out loud! Are you going to give me the passport or aren't you?"

"Our instructions are to issue passports to anyone who wants them, regardless of his political beliefs."

"YOU DON'T EVEN know my political beliefs."

"We have a good idea of the type of person who wants to travel abroad at this time. We call him a fellow traveler."

"This is nonsense. I'm a businessman, a registered Republican, and I want to show my family Europe. Is there anything subversive about that?"

"Why don't you take them to Disneyland?"

"I've been to Disneyland."

"Since they added the submarine ride?"

"Can I have my passport?"

"Just a moment, please." She goes in to consult the FBI men.

"GIVE HIM THE passport," the chief advises. "We'll get him at Kennedy International Airport when we can pick up the entire family at the same time."

Planting Strip Money Is Sought

There is $600 remaining in the fund, which is administered by the county board of supervisors, association members were told at a meeting Monday night. James Swenson was appointed to try to get the money from the county.

The organization also asked for a street light at Ignacio Boulevard and Alameda Del Prado.

James R. Simon, new president of the association, suggested that it have more community activities, luncheons for women, and refreshments at meetings. Members will decide about these next month.

Peacetime Boom Milestone Nears

WASHINGTON (AP) — The astonishingly durable business boom, entering its fifth year this week, will become the longest peacetime expansion in history if it continues into May.

If that happens, only the World War II boom, 6 years and 8 months, will surpass the current expansion.

In April the present boom will have lasted 50 months — exactly the duration of the slow, low-grade 1933-37 climb from the depth of the Great Depression. That upward struggle, hardly an expansion at all, ended with 10 million still jobless.

By contrast, the 48 months just ended have brought unprecedented gains in production and incomes, virtually without inflation, while reducing unemployment from 6.7 per cent to 4.8 per cent.

By an almost equally striking contrast, the steady 1961-5 growth has been virtually free of the inflation which marred the 80-month World War II boom.

Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor yesterday rejected the possibility of any early downturn. The economy is marching ahead smartly, he said, paced by massive output of steel and autos.

Connor discounted fears of a slump after midyear. Many suspect this might occur if industry's massive build-up of steel inventories, as a hedge against a steel strike, is followed by a sudden halt in buying because of a quick wage settlement.

Oversized steel inventories will have less impact than in past years of strike threats, Connor said, because of the rapid rate of consumption this year.

The secretary broke another bit of good news: Planned industry outlays for plant and equipment this year will be $2 billion to $3 billion bigger than previously estimated. A new private survey indicates a 12 to 14 per cent rise this year, Connor said, instead of the 8 per cent foreseen a few months ago.

Connor's optimism reinforced the official view that the recovery will last into 1966. Whether it also can endure through 1967, and thus erase even the wartime record for sustained growth, remains to be seen.

Democrats Disbelieve Baker Case Informant

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic senators have stamped "unworthy of belief" the secret testimony of a key witness in the Bobby Baker investigation — and made that the epitaph of their long and stormy inquiry.

That judgment was based on a Justice Department report of FBI findings on a stream of accusations leveled by Maryland insurance man Don B. Reynolds.

It came late yesterday from the Democratic majority of the Senate Rules Committee, over the protesting votes of three Republicans.

At the same closed session, the Rules Committee voted to ask that the Justice Department send Reynolds' sworn testimony along with the FBI findings, to a federal grand jury to determine whether there is a basis for a perjury indictment.

The committee also asked that all the testimony it has heard during the politically charged investigation be sent to the grand jury to determine whether anybody should be indicted for perjury.

Reynolds named President Johnson, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, Rules Committee Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., and a cast of other men in public and private life in his closed testimony last Dec. 1. The FBI interviewed people who denied each accusation he made.

Reynolds, a business associate of Baker, said the former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority who resigned under fire in October 1963 told him of a $100,000 payoff on the controversial TFX warplane contract.

He talked of influence allegedly brought to bear on other defense contracts, and of "a big sex party" in a New York hotel.

Reynolds' testimony itself was not made public. Sections of it were quoted in the Justice Department report filed by Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach.

In one, Reynolds talked of a bag full of money and the TFX contract. The report told it this way:

"Reynolds said 'I was in Bobby's office and he said to me 'Did you see that man going out of the office,' and I said 'Yes.' And he said 'That is Mr. Evans,' to the best of my recollection, the president of Grumman Aircraft. And he said 'Do you see this flight bag on my desk, this blue bag,' and I said 'Yes.'

"He said 'Would you like to see what is in it?' I said 'Open it.' And he opened it up and there were hundred-dollar bills. . . and he says '$100,000 for the TFX contract.'

"Reynolds said that Baker then told him 'that the leader had interceded to make sure that TFX was awarded to General Dynamics Corp.'

"According to Reynolds, Baker explained 'that the Grumman Aircraft would be awarded a substantial subcontract amount by bringing money to Baker.'

"Reynolds added 'And while I was in Baker's office, sir. . . Margaret Tucker came in and said, 'The vice president is on the phone.' No, she said, 'The leader,' I'm sorry sir, she said, 'The leader is on the phone, your leader, and he wants you to come up immediately.' So he says, 'I'm sorry, Don. I can't talk to you any more about it. I have got all these things.' And he grabbed the blue bag and left.'"

Having recounted that testimony, the FBI reported other people involved denied it. Baker was not among those interviewed.

But Llewellyn J. Evans, senior vice president of Grumman, said he never went to Baker's office and never paid Baker "$100,000 or any other sum of money for any purpose whatsoever."

SENATE'S ODD FACTS REVEALED

Report Tells How Lawmakers Spend $2.66 Million On 'Miscellaneous' Items

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many odd, unrelated and fascinating facts about the Senate came to light today with the publication of a six-month report by its secretary, Felton M. Johnson.

For example:

The Senate spent $2.66 million on "miscellaneous" items, which is more than the $2,471,000 the members and the vice president draw in pay.

It costs $58,370 to transport members from Washington to their homes twice a session.

Last July the Senate bought 72 whiskbrooms for $38.88 and spent $11.88 having its service knives sharpened and $25.85 repairing its sewing machine. Unaccountably, it also invested $27.90 in alpaca coats and $449.05 in 25 blankets in that steaming month.

The Senate library, playing it safe after the July Republican national convention, bought two copies each of two books about Barry Goldwater. The total outlay was $3.50.

Last July was a busy month and the senators used up $46,722 in long-distance telephoning while paying out $33,538 for local phone service. The bill for official telegrams, rendered in August, ran to $62,953.

July and August often found the senators and their staffs thirsty. The Senate was billed $479 for bottled water in July and $689 in August.

Going social, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee put on a series of luncheons for visiting dignitaries. The layout for Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany ran $339.78. But the committee got by with $3.60 in party snacks when it entertained Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto of Pakistan.

Senators get $2,400 a year in stationery allowance. What they don't use they can keep. But the Internal Revenue Service has decreed they must pay income taxes on the residue.

In the period covered by Johnson's report, Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., apparently was low on stationery and used up $2,206.45 of his allowance. Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, seemed to have been well stocked. He drew only $5.82 worth.

Pope Marks Start Of Lent With Ash Wednesday Mass

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI marked the sign of the cross in ashes on his forehead today, leading the world's half billion Roman Catholics into the Lenten season of penitence, prayer and fasting.

The Pope's observance of the Ash Wednesday ritual, signifying human frailty and humility, occurred during a Mass he celebrated in his private chapel in the Apostolic Palace. The pontiff also marked the foreheads of his secretaries, aides and chamberlains with ashes.

Around the world Catholics stopped briefly at their churches to receive the ashes. They are made from palms from the previous Palm Sunday which are burned and mixed with chrism, or sacred oil.

The priest administering the ashes says a prayer reminding the recipient that man is made from dust and will one day return to dust, a warning for him to do penance and prepare for his end.

Pope Paul's Ash Wednesday schedule called for him to go later to the Church of Santa Sabina, on Rome's Aventine Hill, for Lenten devotions.

The word "Lent" comes from the Anglo-Saxon "lencten," meaning spring. The 40-day period actually covers 46 days because the six Sundays are not counted.

In early Christianity there was a three-week preparation for Easter. The period was fixed at 40 days in the 4th century, largely because of the symbolism associated in the Bible with the number 40 — the 40 days of the deluge, the Hebrews' 40 years in the desert before entering the Promised Land, and Christ's 40 days of fasting before starting his public ministry.

Economics Discussion Groups Set

Free discussion groups in economics will be conducted by the Henry George School of Social Science at three locations in Marin starting next week for a 16-week period.

Using Henry George's book on the single tax, "Progress and Poverty," as a springboard, the groups will discuss fundamental economic principles and their application to current problems.

Discussion leaders for the group at Tamalpais High School which starts at 8 p.m. Monday, will be Henry B. Dobson of Corte Madera and Frank Faulkner of San Anselmo. Discussion leaders for the group at College of Marin Gymnasium, which starts at 8 p.m. Wednesday, will be Dr. William Filante and Elden Cochran of San Rafael. Discussion leaders for the group at the Marinwood Community Center, which starts at 8 p.m. Thursday, will be Mrs. June A. Weden of San Anselmo and Robert J. O'Donnell of San Rafael.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, March 3, the 62nd day of 1965 with 303 to follow. It is the start of Lent, Ash Wednesday.

The moon is new. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

Alexander Graham Bell was born on this day in 1847.

On this day in history:

In 1845, Florida entered the Union as the 27th state.

In 1849, the U.S. Department of the Interior was created by an Act of Congress.

In 1962, an Air Force plane caught in the air over the Pacific Ocean a U.S. Discoverer satellite capsule that had orbited the earth for four days.

A thought for the day — German author Thomas Kempis once said: "Be not angry that you cannot make others as you wish them to be, since you cannot make yourself as you wish to be."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Make Use Of Psychology As Well As Mathematics

When you must read an opponent's holding without any real information, psychology may be a surer guide than mathematics.

It is perfectly fair to keep your eyes open and draw inferences from the way the opponents act.

Opening lead — ♠ 7

When West led the seven of spades South played low from the dummy, hoping to win with the jack. East won with the queen and returned a spade.

THIRD SPADE

Declarer took the third spade with dummy's ace, got to his hand with a diamond and tried the heart finesse. He was home if he could get three hearts.

The heart finesse lost, and back came a club. South had to try the club finesse as his last hope, but this lost also and he was down two.

As dummies will, North observed that declarer makes the contract if he takes the first trick with the ace of spades. The club finesse then loses, but the opponents cannot take their spades and South gets nine tricks.

SPOUTS FIGURES

South proceeded to spout figures. He conceded odds of 2 to 1 that the lead was from K-10 or Q-10 rather than from K-Q of spades.

But if South played low at the first trick we would make the contract only if West had led the K-Q but also if he could win a finesse in hearts or clubs. All factors considered, South concluded, his line of play was as good as the other.

South's figures were good, but his psychology was poor. When the opening leader's best suit is headed by K-10-8-7 or by Q-10-8-7 he has no problem about leading the seven.

SOME HESITATION

But when his long suit is headed by K-Q-8-7 he considers leading the king, and decides to lead the seven only after some hesitation.

In this case West has led without the slightest problem. No matter what mathematics said, it was improbable as a matter of psychology that West had led from a suit headed by K-Q.

South should therefore win the first trick in dummy with the ace of spades and proceed to make the contract.

DAILY QUESTION

♣ Q 10 6

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two notrump.

This jump rebid shows 19 or 20 points with balanced distribution and strength in the unbid suits.

By MOLLY MARIN

Mill Valley's Outdoor Art Club will honor its recently married president and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent L. White, at a dinner-dance to be held at the club on March 13.

Mrs. A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr. is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. and Mrs. Gordon Reynolds will be hosts at a social hour starting at 7:30 p.m., and dinner will be served at 8 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Mary Keene.

Other chairman are Mesdames Robert B. Earl, music; John C. Burnham, decorations; Joseph Brewster, staffing; Edward Dill, tables; and Thomas Lathrop, reservations.

MRS. CHARLES P. DAVIES (Elizabeth Banning) of Indian Valley Ranch, Novato, will be among those participating in the tour of dining decor presented by the Women's board of the San Francisco Museum of Art March 30 through April 3.

Elizabeth Banning, A.I.D., will transform the entrance of the top floor of the Mustard Building at Ghiradelli Square into a Caribbean terrace to resemble the entrance to the terrace of a 200 year old colonial house restored for contemporary living

Mrs. Emile Marghab from the island of Madeira, was a house guest at the Davies home last week. Mrs. Marghab is a designer of the famous embroidered linens of today and many if their designs are in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City.

SKIERS FROM the Belvedere Ski Club will take to the Sierra slopes at Heavenly Valley for a three day trip from March 12 to 14. Last month the members made a three-day trip to Alpine Meadows and Squaw Valley, when the group included the Drs. and Mesdames John Flint and Benton Mathews of Belvedere and the Mathews' son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mathews of Stockton, as well as the Edgar Reeds, Gary Gasts, Eric Bellingalls and their daughters and the Russell Rices with their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arther Forsyth, who returned to Mill Valley Monday after a five months' around-the-world tour, will be honored at a welcome-home dinner party Saturday given at her home by Mrs. William Gande of Mille Valley.

The Forsyths made the entire trip by ship, going through the Panama Canal to England for six weeks and on to Scotland for another six weeks of visiting relatives.

On the "Arcadia" with them was Mill Valley's "Septuagenarian Vagabond" traveler Roberta Winans, who was on her way to Africa. They report that when they stopped at Acapulco, it was all they could do to keep up with her in sight-seeing. They celebrated their 16th wedding anniversary aboard the "Arcadia."

Continuing their trip through the Mediterranean and Suez Canal to Australia, they spent six weeks visiting in Sydney, where Mrs. Forsyth had attended school.

She reports that the highlights of the trip for her was Singapore because of the colorful costumes of people of many nations and the wonderful shopping opportunities.

The Forsyths returned via New Zealand, Fiji and Honolulu.

When a Family Buys A Home in Central Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 3½ to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

Little Acorn

it may have been — but it surely grew into a mighty oak. One big enough to shelter the whole concrete patio of this hillside home. The living room has distant views of green hills and a Swedish fireplace for cool evenings — the kitchen is the informal family-type with plenty of room for feeding a group. Each of the bedrooms is large and the bath is really huge and fully tiled — even the separate shower stall. The patio and oak alone are worth the tiny price of $23,250 — so come see the house we are throwing into the bargain.

When a Family Buys A Home in Northern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest research* shows that 71.9% of home buyers in Northern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of almost 5 to 1 MORE than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	71.9
San Francisco	14.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

When a Family Buys A Home in Southern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 2 to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Mortality from cancer of the stomach has declined 65 per cent in the United States in the past 25 years. The change in the death rate is not so apparent in England and the incidence in Japan and Scandinavia continues to be high. We are pleased with our lot, even though the reason is unknown.

Some credit is due to earlier diagnosis and better surgical technique. This is logical, except that gastric cancers often are silent until far advanced. They produce relatively few symptoms at the stage when surgery might offer the best chance of cure. Most victims become suspicious when they lose weight because of a waning appetite, dyspepsia, and abdominal pain.

MANY TELL OF having the desire to eat until they swallow one or two bites of food. This leads to a feeling of satisfaction or a sense of being uncomfortably full. Others become concerned when the full feeling is followed with vomiting—more so when the material contains blood. By this time, many are anemic.

The exception to this story occurs when the cancer masquerades as a peptic ulcer. We do not refer to the nine out of 10 lesions located in the first part of the small intestine (duodenum) just outside the exit valve of the gastric pouch. This is the usual ulcer with which most of us are familiar; they rarely become malignant. The crater that eats its way into the wall of the stomach is more serious because it may be cancerous. These ulcers are painful and usually produce distress in an early phase of growth.

MOST STOMACH cancers are diagnosed via X-ray. Surgery offers the only chance for cure. Other tests may be suggested when a gastric ulcer is found, because some of these lesions are benign. Many physicians recommend early surgery regardless of the outcome of the tests because they do not want to lose time if the lesion is malignant. In addition, benign ulcers of the stomach can be stubborn and ultimately an operation will be needed—so why not now?

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

EYESTRAIN AND WEARINESS

A. B. writes: Can eyestrain cause excessive tiredness?

REPLY

The eye muscles tire but it is a moot question whether fatigue of the entire body ensues. Eyestrain often occurs at the end of the day when the person is tired for other reasons. In such instances, fatigue is coincidental.

ASCENDING STOMACH

E. C. writes: Recently I had X-rays and the doctor found that part of my stomach has moved up to the chest. Is this a common disorder?

REPLY

Yes. It is noted so often, most X-ray specialists look for a hiatal, or diaphragmatic hernia, whenever they X-ray the stomach.

CHEESY TONSILS

F. H. writes: Are cheesy particles in the tonsile a sign of infection?

REPLY

Not necessarily. Tonsils contain numerous crypts in which food and debris collect. These appear as white spots and a cheesy matter escapes when the tonsil is squeezed.

CROSS-EYED TEEN-AGER

Linda writes: I'm 16 years old and have a bad turn in the right eye. Is it too late to correct this condition?

REPLY

No, but tests must be done to determine whether the operation will improve vision in the turned eye.

Memory's Vaults Guard Some Rare Old Treasures Of Past

By HAL BOYLE

Memory makes us wise — or at least careful. You probably have minted many a sad or merry memory yourself if you can look back and remember when—

Most dogs lived and died without even wearing a tag, being treated by a veterinarian, having a license, or being taken to a canine beauty parlor.

You could tell how cold it was by how the icicles congealed on the full veils worn by dignified old ladies.

Your stature in a small community was partly determined by the number of times you had read the Bible all the way through.

It also was a mark of distinction if you had a worn buffalo robe to keep you warm when you went riding in a horse-drawn sleigh.

Everyone thought it hilarious that heavyweight boxer Gene Tunney read William Shakespeare during training for a bout. (Most of the fans who jeered him couldn't read two lines from a poem by Edgar A. Guest without moving their lips.)

Those were the dear old days. Remember?

Peak To Honor Civil War Hero

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A 10,415-foot mountain in Alaska may be named for a Civil War soldier who saved the life of Secretary of State William H. Seward the night President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated.

The State Geographic Board recommended yesterday a peak in the Chugach Mountains be named for Sgt. George F. Robinson.

Robinson, assigned to nurse Seward, who had been injured in an accident, foiled an attempt to kill Seward April 14, 1865, the night Lincoln was shot.

Two years later, Seward engineered the purchase of Alaska from Russia.

Undersea Research Gets LBJ's Backing

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says the government is going to increase its research into the secrets of the ocean.

In letters to Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., the President said such work may lead to faster trnasportation, greater use of marine mineral and fisheries resources, better predictions of the storms and tides which endanger life and property and improved national defense.

Search Starting For 'Miss Marin'

"Miss California of 1965" may be living in Marin County and a search for the girl to represent this area in Los Angeles on June 28 has been initiated.

The Marin Visitors Bureau is sponsoring a "Miss Marin" pageant to be presented at a "white tie ball" for the queen and her court on April 29 in the College of Marin gymnasium.

Clinton DeLap, director of the bureau, is being assisted by Mrs. Jack McCarthy, Mrs. William Fusselman, Mrs. R. Keith M. Dearth, Mrs. John T. Shea and Mrs. Edward Beach in the search for "Miss Marin."

Contestants will be judged on beauty of face and figure, charms, poise and personality. Talent will not be taken into consideration. It is required that the entrant must have been born between Aug. 1, 1941, and Aug. 1, 1947. She must be unmarried.

"Miss Marin" will reign at the "May In Marin" kick-off luncheon April 30 at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael.

"Miss KTIM," who will be selected this month by the radio station in conjunction with its 18th anniversary, will also be entered in the "Miss Marin" pageant. "Miss KTIM" must be 18 years of age, however.

TELEVISION REVIEW

FCC To Look Into Program Control

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Is it better for sponsors or network executives to control television entertainment? There are some people who take this question seriously, though to viewers it may seem something akin to being given a choice between Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston as heavyweight champion.

At any rate, this Friday the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is expected to look into a controversial study proposal that would reduce the near - complete network control of programming to 50 per cent of the shows between 6 and 11 at night. This means the networks could not have a financial interest in more than half the programs presented during these hours.

Sponsors, via independent producers and advertising agencies, would inherit the remainder of the time. Each side claims program quality would decline under the other's system, and they are both probably right.

What, then, does all this mean to the average televiewer? Very little in the sense that one might hopefully expect great improvements from all this fussing. But it is wonderfully instructive to study the talk about "quality" when, as usual, all that is really involved is who gets the money and the power.

This is known as diverting the viewer, a device popular with politicians. For could anything more explicitly suggest the dead-end track of current television entertainment than the absurd notion that sponsor-controlled hours could improve program quality?

Sponsors, of course, control television in a very definite way now too. What is upsetting many persons, however, is the fact that a very few people in network programming control just about everything that goes on the national airwaves as entertainment.

This immense power was brought to mind again this week by the replacement of James T. Aubrey, the most commanding figure in network programming, as president of CBS - TV's entertainment division. Nevertheless, most sponsors, no less than networks, are primarily interested in ratings and money, not altruism, and nothing, but nothing, will change until the basic system is forced to change.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Two of the season's most notable specials will be repeated . . . "Casals at 88," a one-hour CBS-TV documentary about the great cellist, will be rerun on March 29—but again at 10 p.m. EST, which is too late for youngsters who should see it . . . and "The Louvre," a one-hour NBC - TV documentary about the world-famous center of art, will be rerun May 14, at the earlier hour of 8:30 p.m. EDT.

Proposition 14 Test In Works

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A Municipal Court ruling set the stage yesterday for a final test of the constitutionality of Proposition 14, which wiped out California fair housing laws.

A three-judge panel have dismissed three civil actions filed by Negroes who charged landlords with racial discrimination.

But Presiding Municipal Judge Robert J. Drewes said the panel "entertains serious doubts" about the constitutionality of Proposition 14, passed by voters last November. The court recommended that the plaintiffs appeal.

BEHR URGES BOMBERS USE IN FIRE FIGHTING

A research project on the possible use of B-36 bombers in a fleet of long-range forest fire-bombing aircraft for the West Coast was proposed yesterday by Peter H. Behr, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Behr proposed that the board pass a resolution urging the Defense Department to look into the peaceful use of the bombers, which he said are apparently mothballed in sufficient number for such a fleet.

The research should try to refine borate bombing techniques to the extent that the bigger, less maneuverable aircraft could be used for precision fire bombing, Behr said.

A fleet of 10 B-36s, each of which has 17 times the capacity of the present fire-bombing aircraft, could serve the entire California coast, Behr said.

Behr's resolution was put over two weeks, along with another one, urged by the Riverside County supervisors, asking a $175,000 appropriation by Congress for fire research laboratories.

'Federation' Of Chambers To Be Studied

Robert Ritter, president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce was named Monday to head a committee to study the advisability of forming a "federation" of Marin County chambers.

Yesterday's meeting, attended by 15 representatives of chambers in the county, was the second session to explore such an organization.

County Administrator Alan Bruce told the group that the board of supervisors has a policy of contribution funds to chambers and other groups promoting Marin on a county-wide basis, but is reluctant to underwrite local or only city-wide events.

The group agreed to bring in budget figures to a meeting later this month for analysis in light of this requirement. They also will explore possibilities of coordinating promotional efforts.

Permits For Dredging, Fill In San Rafael Are Delayed

Navigational permits for dredging and filling submerged lands east of the San Rafael dike will be delayed at least two weeks.

James Fischgrund of Beverly Hills and Darrell Edwards of Oakland requested the permits from the Army Corps of Engineers a month ago. Together they own 54 acres.

The San Rafael City Council ruled that all fill applications east of the dike would be rejected until after the city general plan is adopted.

A spokesman for the corps reported today that the Marin Rod and Gun Club protested the Fischgrund application and the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service protested both applications.

Protests from other public agencies call for negotiations on the application to seek some kind of compromise, the spokesman said. This takes at least two weeks.

Five To Tell Of Work In Mississippi

Two carpenters, two attorneys, a student and a minister will tell of recent experiences in Mississippi at 8 p.m. March 10 at Brown's Hall, Mill Valley, in a program sponsored by Homestead Valley Improvement Club. Admission is free.

Phillip Drath, San Rafael general contractor, and Othell Mallouf, Mill Valley builder, will tell of their recent work rebuilding burned-out churches in and near Pulaski.

Attorneys Robert D. Carrow of Novato and Benjamin Dreyfus of Mill Valley will tell of taking depositions supporting the disqualification of five Mississippi congressmen elected last November. Carrow is to return March 26 for 10 days to take more depositions.

Rev. Jack Bartlett, associate pastor of Mill Valley Community Church, was in Mississippi two weeks, sent by his church at the request of United Churches of Christ, Northern California. Karen Duncan of Novato, now a sophomore at San Francisco State College, worked at Canton, Miss., for seven months for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and Congress of Racial Equality.

Martin J. Rosen, Mill Valley attorney will be moderator, according to Arlie W. Backlund, publicity chairman.

School Library Night Hours Set

The Sir Francis Drake High School library will be open to students Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., beginning March 9.

Replies to a questionnaire distributed to juniors and seniors last month indicated they felt the library time now alloted was not sufficient.

Opening the library for night study will be considered an experiment to see if the students profit from the added time, said Principal Harold Allison.

Rec Program To Be Mapped

Named to look into the matter were recreation director Lawrence Crawford and Mrs. C. R. Stitham.

From April it was agreed that meetings will be held on the first Thursday of each month. Newly elected chairman of the commission is William T. Lane Jr., who took over from Jerrol L. Flood.

Mothers Angry About Pageant

One mother, Mrs. Rudy Dunn, says she will present a protest petition carrying 110 signatures to the city council next Tuesday.

Graduation is June 16. Miss California will be selected June 17. The contest also ties up the auditorium for June 16.
